Shock figures for skin cancer rates in the borough

SHOCK cancer research has shown that Weymouth and Portland has one of the highest rates for malignant melanomas in England.

The borough has approaching double the average case rate for England.

Men are worst affected because they tend to notice symptoms later than women, said Cancer Research UK which is leading a skin cancer campaign targeting men over 50 in Dorset.

Their research revealed that there were 211 cases of malignant melanoma in Dorset for 2004-2006 with moles predominantly on the back in men and on the

by Harry Walton

legs in women.

Incidence was higher among females but mortality was higher among men and accounted for 20 of 33 deaths in 2005-2007 weeks of March.

It will aim to encourage men over 50 to recognise the signs of skin cancer and report them promptly to their doctor because re-

Weymouth and Portland has one of the sunniest climates in the UK. Four of the last nine years have seen more than 2,000 hours of sunshine - well above the national average

The campaign, which is being overseen by Dorset NHS, will involve a two week social marketing drive over the last two search has shown that malignant melanoma rates over the last 25 years have risen faster than any other common cancer.

Dorset Cancer Network service improvement facilitator Richard Hemmingfield explained that, while the situation in Weymouth and Portland was serious, the melanoma problem was a rising trend across the south west not just the borough or Dorset.

He added: "When it is summertime in Weymouth and Portland people tend to sunbathe more than they used to.

"Men tend not to be aware of their bodies as much as women and they tend to be slower to report symptoms, perhaps because of a perception that it is not the manly thing to do.

"A Cancer Research roadshow vehicle will be in Weymouth town centre for two weeks in March so we would urge people, particularly men, to come along and see what they can learn."

He said the campaign had three core messages that anyone noticing any unusual change to a mole or patch of skin - such as size, colour, itching or pain - should not delay but get it checked by a doctor.

The second message is that it is easier to treat successfully if skin cancer is found early and the third message is that skin cancer kills more men than women.

The three elements of the campaign will be direct mail, community engagement activity and road show events.

IN a special 60-second interview this week, year six pupils from St Michael's Primary School in Lyme Regis have used their newly learnt journalism skills to grill their own headteacher Ms Annabelle Grose.

After a visit from View from Bridport reporter Tom Glover pupils from year six, studying newspapers and journalistic writing, put their skills to the test.

After the interview Ms Grose said: "I think they did very well, their note taking was their challenge because it's difficult for them to listen and get the main message but they did it very well and they helped each other by making sure they had all written down the key words."

"They all asked a question and they all took down the key notes so they shared it out very well between them. I think they know me quite well and they had thought about their questions."

Lauren, Harriett, Leo, Imogen and Natalie (not pictured) wrote questions, took notes and typed up their interview as it is printed below.

■ ANNABELLE Grose, 38, has been headteacher at St Michael's Primary School in Lyme Regis since September last year.

Having trained at Exmouth's Rolle College Ms Grose has spent time at school's in Plymouth, Honiton and Charmouth before taking up her first headship last year.

When not teaching Ms Grose is a dedicated member of the Lympstone South West Telecoms Band who she regularly competes with playing tenor horn.

■ HOW long have you been a teacher?

Well, I have been a teacher for 15 years. This is my 16th year of being a teacher.

■ HOW many schools have you worked at and what were they called?

When I was a newly qualified teacher I worked in Littleton in Honiton, Branscombe CE VC, Charmouth and Whiteleigh Community Primary in Plymouth. So this is the fifth primary school I have worked at.

■ WHAT is your favourite subject in school and why?

My favourite subject is English because I really enjoy sharing ideas especially as they are all individual ideas. When I taught in one of the schools, one particular girl was amazing at English, in fact she thought in a way that I didn't. I was inspired by her. We learnt from each other. She shared her thinking and all of us progressed. So I have always listened carefully to children's thinking.

■ WILL you make any big changes to the school and if so what?

Yes I would like to make a learning link with the local community. We will also have strong national and global links.

Also I don't think that lessons always have to be inside school, that they can be outside of school as well, in shops, offices, work places, fields, the beach, the museum, anywhere really.

Long term I would like us to be an environmentally friendly school.

■ WHAT inspired you to be a headteacher?

I always had a strong vision of ideas for schools, I love seeing children getting excited about their learning and I think being a headteacher is the best job to make learning amazing.

■ HAVE you ever taught in a different country or culture?

Yes I taught in Uganda for just a week. Their knowledge and understanding is very different from UK children. They have a wonderful drive and aim for the best.

■ HOW long have you been in a brass band?

Since I was in year six so that was 27-years-ago. I played in four different brass bands and I played the Tenor Horn in all of them. I still play now. Music is very important to me.

■ WHAT is your favourite part of being a headteacher?

I like being able to communicate with the parents and community for the benefit of the children.

■ IS this the biggest school that you have ever taught at?

No, at Honiton, Littleton there were roughly 420 children there.

■ DO you like the fact that we have easy access to the church?

Yes because it is a very special place and it is lovely to be able to use it. I like the fact that it has lots of opportunities to use it in the future. It is important that our children benefit from our church links.

■ IS this the job you wanted when you were younger?

No first I wanted to be a weather lady (Meteorologist) then a nanny and then I realised that I could be a teacher.

Protestors march on County Hall over school crossing patrol cuts

■ LEAD protestor Helen Croft with mother Jacqui Case and her daughter Poppy on the steps of county hall

■ PARENTS, pupils and councillors stood should to shoulder against proposed cuts to school crossing patrols

THOUSANDS of people have sent an impassioned message to county hall from the school gates: "Save our lollipop ladies".

A 9,000-signature petition was presented to council leaders ahead of crucial talks that could see 85 school crossing posts phased out in the county during the next 14 months.

The high profile march saw dozens of parents and children voice their frustration at Dorset County Council cuts that would save £200,000 but would ultimately cost lives, according to demonstrators.

Weymouth Holy Trinity School pupil Poppy Case handed the petition to DCC's vice chairman, Councillor David Crowhurst on the steps of County Hall.

March organiser, Weymouth mother Helen Croft who runs a daily walking bus service to Holy Trinity School, said: "I called for the march because its children's lives that will ultimately be put at risk."

"The whole belief that DCC can save money by endangering children is wrong."

"They want children to exercise and say they should get out and walk to school and yet the money to protect them is removed. It's just silly and unnecessary."

"What surprises me is the one or two people who say they agree with the cuts because the council has to save money and children are the parents' responsibility."

"As a parent I cannot imagine how I would feel if my child was knocked down by a car because of government cuts that can be prevented."

"Everybody has said well done and great stuff, they will have to listen now; let's just hope they do listen now."

She added: "I hope that the people continue to write to councillors and say they are not happy about this because a petition makes a good headline but it's the individual letters that will make the difference."

The strength of feeling against the proposed cuts was evident as parents and children from as far as

by Paul Crompton

Wimbourne, Christchurch, Rarl and Bridport stood shoulder to shoulder waving placards and chanting protest slogans.

Speaking on the steps of County Hall, Councillor Crowhurst said he was pleased to receive the petition and would formally present it to the chair of the council at the February 17th council meeting.

He said: "The service is highly regarded at schools and within the community. I was a parent and I am a grandparent and I have to say parents want to ensure their children get to school safely."

He added that the county council would be looking for the community to volunteer to cover the patrols if funding was cut, with DCC financing associated costs, but not salaries, linked to the replacement service.

Bridport town and DCC councillor Karl Wallace said: "The county council must not vote along party lines; they have to vote with hearts and common sense to protect kids. It's their duty to safeguard lives and provide safe routes to school."

"This £200,000 can be easily found elsewhere. Stop the [Dorchester] library moving or look at getting rid of directors."

"If we lose this service then there are not enough volunteers, and so the government's so called 'Big Society' is not going to work if they don't provide this service."

"The council will have blood on their hands."

A county council spokesman said they were not legally obliged to provide a school crossing service and added that it was not proposed to withdraw that service, just funding for patrol salaries. If the community could find funding for a patrol then the patrol site would remain "active".

The county council claimed it would only cost £1,000-£1,300 per term should a community wish to take over financing a patrol. Ms Croft claimed self-funding a school patrol would set Holy Trinity School back £10,000 a year.

The county council will meet on February 17th to discuss the proposal to withdraw its funding for school crossing patrol salaries as part of plans to save £54.9m over the next three years.

The council recently extended its consultation period for all of its patrol sites to the end of March 2012 instead of the previous December 2011 deadline.

High tech monitoring system should improve patient care

PATIENT care is set to go hi-tech with the introduction of early warning system at Dorset County Hospital.

The system will inform doctors if a patient is getting sicker by analysing up-to-date information before sending immediate alerts. Nurses are due to swap paper charts to record data such as pulse, temperature and blood pressure for the VitalPAC electronic system by the autumn.

Information on patients' vital signs are fed into a handheld computers at the bedside, meaning data is automatically analysed, before identifying priority patients using an early warning score.

An urgent alert is given if the score reveals the patient to be in need of immediate medical attention.

Once the data has been recorded it can be assessed by any clinician from anywhere in the hospital.

Dr Andrew Ball, DCH's clinical director for Critical Care Services, said: "This system will ensure we identify deteriorating patients quickly throughout the hospital.

"The information can be

■ MATRON for Critical Care and Surgery Miles Tompkins, Clinical Director for Critical Care Services Dr Andrew Ball and Critical Care Consultant Nurse Sharon Mooney demonstrate the VitalPAC system to patient Walter Court

accessed anywhere within the hospital so we will always know where the sickest patients are. It means we can pick up deteriorating patients earlier and ensure they receive appropriate treatment.

"It is a very user friendly system and is well-liked by staff in hospitals where it is already in use, so the implementation should be straightforward. We hope to have it up and running throughout the hospital by the autumn."

DCH bosses hope the system, designed by healthcare improvement specialist The Learning Clinic, will bring efficiency savings as time-consuming paper-based systems will be phased out and bed management will be improved.

The VitalPAC system also allows staff to quickly and easily see which patients are due to arrive in hospital and which are ready to go home.

Chris Milliner, The Learning Clinic's site manager for Dorset County Hospital, said: "When patients come into hospital, they want to know that they are always going to be monitored closely, fully and accurately. They want to know that if they get sicker, the change is going to be immediately identified and they are going to be quickly reviewed and treated by their doctor or a specialist. VitalPAC helps do all of that. It also means doctors and nurses spend less time filling in paperwork and more time with their patients. Quite simply, it improves patient care."

Strong feelings over Southill bus service

■ QUIZZED: First's Mark Williams and Councillor Christine James at the initial meeting which had to be moved twice because of numbers before starting in Emmanuel Church

NEARLY 200 people packed a major community meeting in Weymouth to quiz a bus boss about controversial new services for Southill and other sites.

So many people turned up at Southill Community Centre that the meeting had to be switched twice, first to a larger hall and then to nearby Emmanuel Church so everyone could attend.

Passenger anger over service proposals had already sparked a 1,000-signature petition and First Hampshire and Dorset operations manager Mark Williams began the meeting by saying that changes had been made because of this, while more timetable alterations were planned to take account of public comment.

He explained that the amalgamation of the No 5 Southill service with the No 9 Lanehouse service – which started this week – would now see buses leave town and either go Lanehouse-Southill-town or Southill-Lanehouse-town with one bus per hour.

He added: "The new proposed bus service is not set in stone and we are prepared to fine tune it depending on

by Harry Walton

what we find once it has been operating for a while. We would welcome passenger comments on this so we can act on what they say and make improvements where possible."

Mr Williams said No 5 had been losing money and part of what First had now done was to restore service reliability using larger buses.

But he was then peppered with dozens of questions from passengers packing the church including why was Southill Garden Drive being left out and what was First going to do about bus timing for to and from school and to and from work. Mr Williams promised to look at both issues and talk about them "even at this late stage".

Other people complained that they didn't know where to wait for a bus and that some drivers were not recording people using bus passes or even some paying passengers, which was preventing a true picture being gained of how busy the service was.

People also asked for timetables with larger print and more information which could be available on buses for passengers to collect and Mr Williams said he would look at it.

There was applause for one suggestion that pass holders would be willing to pay some money to keep and improve their bus service while other suggestions included having the Hereford Road service turn right to visit Southill, access to Dorchester Road and Weymouth Community Hospital.

The passenger campaign was co-ordinated by Anne Crabbe and Yvonne Hall, who said: "We now feel we have done as much as we can. It may not be perfect and it may not suit everyone but it is as good as we are going to get."

Weymouth and Portland transport spokesman Councillor Christine James said: "I am very pleased that First has listened to passengers and that they are trying to produce a service to meet people's needs."

County councillor David Harris chaired the meeting and then took public comment to County Hall, Dorchester, where he spoke at a meeting involving bus services where officials agreed to explore the Southill meeting's comments.

Chesil Beach redevelopment

MORE than £1 million is to be spent on redeveloping the Chesil Beach Centre.

Work on the site off Portland Beach Road is being paid for through a £550,000 Heritage Lottery Fund grant which is being match funded by a variety of groups including the Crown Estate, Portland Gas Trust, Dorset County and Weymouth and Portland Councils.

The cash will help create new interpretation facilities, an indoor café, education areas, a forecourt and boardwalk.

Other work will build a new car park entrance and improve access for disabled people.

Centre manager Don Moxom (pictured) said: "We have waited for this for five years and it still hasn't sunk in yet that we've finally got it."

"It has been a difficult project getting all the partners and funding together, all the permissions, all the business and access plans and the environmental assessments.

"A huge amount of work has gone into this success which we hope will transform the Centre and take it to a new level."

"The new centre with its new facilities will become an attraction in its own right as well as an information point."

"The thing I am looking forward to most is the opportunity to engage with school parties."

"We have had so little room to deal with a class of students. Now we will have a better opportunity to explain the excitement of the World Heritage site, its geology, the geology of the coast."

"The new Centre will also give us an opportunity to better interpret Chesil and the Fleet because protection of the area's nature will still remain our top priority."

Flower arranging

FLOWERS lovers have a chance to attending a special flower arranging class in Weymouth.

The event is being staged by Pygmalion Florist at 7 Westham Road on February 16th from 6.30pm-8.30pm and it costs £20 with a complimentary glass of wine.

The class will be suitable for all levels and is a workshop for the enthusiast who wants to know how to arrange flowers for the home or just those who would like to try their hand at the art.

Exact floral content is flexible but the course will cover the skills needed to select flowers and foliage to last, mastering the mechanics to secure stems, where to purchase materials and combining flowers and foliage through an understanding of the elements and principles of design.

People can take their arrangements home at the end of the class and they should bring a strong pair of scissors with them with them.

Booking is essential and a deposit is required. Those interested can contact 01305-839854.

Remembering the past to protect the future

by Harry Walton

HEADS bowed in remembrance when Weymouth held its annual Holocaust Service in gardens off Radipole Park Drive.

The service was taken by the Mayor's chaplain, the Reverend Chris Briggs who said: "The Holocaust is one of the things that we should never forget so we can learn for the future."

Weymouth and Portland Mayor Paul Kimber joined others near a tree in the gardens dedicated to the Holocaust and said it was a time to pay respects and remember the past, something one of those attending the service knew more about than most.

Lord Morris-Mendoza from Bournemouth Reform Synagogue said: "Thirty-eight members of my family were in concentration camps including my mother and father. None of them survived.

'We need to care and look after others to ensure that such events never repeat themselves'

"I was born in Amsterdam and I only survived because I was hidden and smuggled to Ireland.

"It is important to have such services as this in Weymouth and wherever we have occasion to remember the horrors of the past.

"We need to care and look after others to ensure that such events never repeat themselves."

Keeping fit in the park

MUSCLES were flexed when a brand new green gym was officially opened at Weymouth's Lodmoor Country Park.

The Friends of Lodmoor Country Park and Weymouth and Portland council's parks team submitted a bid to Groundwork UK to install an outdoor gym around the park and a £43,000 grant provided 21 pieces of equipment located at five different points around a two kilometre trail, all equipment being free to use.

Friends project co-ordinator Bridget Betts said: "There is now a full range of gym apparatus to enable every part of your body to get a good work out."

"All the equipment has instructions on how it should be used to make exercising easier and, the added bonus is, the experience is free without any monthly membership necessary!"

by Harry Walton

Weymouth and Portland parks development officer Tara Gooding said: "To have this sort of high quality equipment at five different points round Lodmoor will be a wonderful incentive to help improve community fitness."

Community facilities spokesman Councillor Roger Allen said: "The installation of a green gym at Lodmoor is a great addition to the country park and I'd like to thank the friends and the parks section for all their hard work in bringing this project to life.

"The country park is an ideal setting for outdoor exercise and, from the feedback I'm already receiving, I can honestly say this facility will prove to be of great benefit to our community."

Among the first to use it were Councillors Joy Stanley and Bill White.

Mrs Stanley said: "I think it is a wonderful addition to the park and something a lot of people are going to enjoy."

The gym was funded through the Community Spaces grants programme.

Soldier dies in training exercise

A SOLDIER has died in Weymouth during a training exercise to take apart a support bridge.

The accident at Wyke Regis Training Area off Camp Road involved a man from 53rd Field Squadron Royal Engineers.

Police said they received a report of "a suspected industrial accident on MoD property".

Officers added that the man, who came from Cambridge and was believed to be in his early thirties, was pronounced dead at the scene.

A Dorset Police spokesman said: "Next of kin have been informed. The coroner is aware."

"It is believed that the accident took place while army personnel were taking part in a training exercise to disassemble a logistic support bridge."

"There are no suspicious circumstances and police are investigating with the assistance of the Health and Safety Executive."

AS I SEE IT ...

by Geoff Treleven

If only I'd known

WALKING through a large wooded area when our son was very young, he found a hole with water in it. Wondering how deep it was, he decided to find out with his foot. There was a sudden cry for help as he balanced precariously with a boot full of water.

As we go through life, there is much to discover and many ways of learning. Often we learn the hard way by our mistakes. We would do well to profit from the mistakes of someone else and benefit from their advice.

The trouble is, we allow our pride and sense of independence to take precedence over common sense. If only we would listen to all the wisdom and good advice that is so readily available.

Sadly, there are many who once experimented and now find themselves addicted to a habit which only gives temporary satisfaction at best. It seems trite to say prevention is better than cure, but how true it is.

I know it is not easy for those who long for release – whatever holds them. Perhaps the following scripture may be their answer. "If the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed." (John 8:36)

Second junction comes on stream in transport package

HARBOUR Crossroads has become the second Weymouth Transport Package junction to be completed.

Work on the junction near Asda had to continue through January after extreme December weather stopped it being finished on time.

County strategic projects manager Matthew Piles said: "It's a month overdue, but it will be good to have this junction up and running.

"Traffic engineers are closely observing the signals and will be making adjustments as necessary.

"Over the coming months we will be monitoring the two new junctions to ensure they are working together."

The signals have been programmed with traffic flow information collected over the last two years. They will continue to record information about traffic that passes through the junction, gradually making the signals more efficient.

Vehicle detectors buried in the road on every lane of the junction will measure traffic flows and allow more green time to be given to the busier approaches.

Junction improvement work has now finished on Rodwell Road and at its junction with Rodwell Avenue and over the next few weeks these junctions will be commissioned by Siemens.

Chickerell Road and Wyke Road will remain one-way at their junction with Boot Hill until their signals are switched on.

Protecting beach and harbour from oil pollution

STAFF from Weymouth and Portland council put emergency plans to the test last week with an exercise to simulate an oil spill in Weymouth Bay during the 2012 Olympic sailing events.

They carried out the exercise, which involved the protection of both the harbour and the beach, with the deployment of booms.

If such an event occurred booms together with the tide would channel pollution to a point where it could be collected and disposed off.

Other sections of the exercise included the excavation of a hole in the sands to take the "oil pollution".

Residents were able to watch as staff from a range of council departments deployed the oil protection booms in the harbour and off the beach.

Harbour Master Captain

Peter Moles said: "The exercise was a success and thoroughly tested our plans.

"We learnt a lot and that will enable us to make the final touches to the plan."

Businesses 'desperate' for better broadband speeds

DORSET businesses need much faster broadband speeds throughout the county and they need the upgrade soon.

That was the message from Dorset Digital Taskforce chairman Dr Monica Seeley.

She said: "One answer is wireless which bypasses the copper cables which have historically carried the telephone traffic.

"By a series of masts in line of sight, installed all over Dorset, broadband access could be speeded-up and revolutionised for small and large businesses."

Mike Wright, chairman of BHLive Trading and a director of Dorset Chamber of Commerce and Industry was also concerned and said: "I believe business people will be put off setting-up in Dorset because of the generally poor broadband speeds.

"It seems to me absolutely essential to attract new companies to the county. It's a factor many business people rate as very important."

Taskforce member

Michel Hooper-Immins said: "There are hopes that the two new fibre-optic cables being laid by BT to the sailing Olympics centre in Portland will be the catalyst for an improvement in broadband speeds all round the county."

Many Dorset businesses still use BT's wired broadband services. BT plans to invest £2.5billion in broadband infrastructure across the UK by 2015, but at the moment, many BT customers- particularly in rural areas- report poor speeds.

Dr Seeley said: "While fibre-optic cable is considered to be the most robust way of delivering a high speed internet connection, we cannot wait for BT for ever.

The Digital Dorset Taskforce has been talking to C4L, a firm based in Westbourne. Their idea of wireless broadband carried between masts placed on customers' roofs is a relatively new concept. The Dorset Chamber is shortly to offer members in Bournemouth and Poole an opportunity to trial the new service.

C4L claims to be able to provide download and upload speeds of up to 150 mbps. The faster the service, the more the customer pays.

Renewable energy technology for all

THIS week sees the official opening of the Green Energy Centre in Weymouth. This is the third centre to open in Dorset and will provide renewable energy technologies to everyone in the area.

Antony Jordan, responsible for the centre, says: "With energy prices continuing to soar, there is no denying the fact that there is a desperate need for individuals and companies to be more proactive in becoming greener and investigate the possibility of installing green energy technologies in the home or office.

"Although there are other showrooms trading in renewable energy technologies they usually only demonstrate one or two products. The Green Energy Centre, on the other hand, is unique because it offers a complete range of products which have been carefully nominated and manufactured in the UK.

"This centre provides the opportunity for customers to learn about the vast range of renewable energy systems we offer, from products such as solar electricity or hot water, cavity wall and loft insulation, ground and air source heat pumps, timber framed windows, to low energy light bulbs. We are also Glow Worm approved boiler installers."

If you would like to find out how the Green Energy Centre can help reduce your energy bills and reduce your carbon footprint please contact Antony Jordan on 01305 816961.

Celebration of 70 years of air cadets

Words by Harry Walton
Photos by Steve Davies

THE Lord Lieutenant of Dorset, Mrs Anthony Pitt-Rivers, took the salute when more than 200 of air cadets, together with adult NCO's and officers from all 13 Air Training Corps squadrons in Dorset paraded through Weymouth.

Joining them were some of the original air cadets – all now in their 80s – who rolled back the years to take part in the special Weymouth parade and service, held to mark the 70th anniversary of the founding of the Air Training Corps.

Weymouth and Portland Mayor Paul Kimber and Portland Town Mayor David Thurston attended together with the Officer Commanding Dorset/Wilts Air Training Corps, Wing Commander Philip Cubitt, and representatives of other youth organisations in the area.

The parade was led by 1606 Squadron, which can trace its origins back to 1941 when it was originally formed as Weymouth Grammar School Squadron.

Together with some out-placed flights in locations such as Portland, in 1949 it was combined with another unit - 849 (Weymouth) Squadron - to form 1606 (Weymouth) Squadron.

Celebrations also included a special service at Holy Trinity Church followed by a reception at the Cadet Centre on Barrack Road.

Wing Commander Cubitt said: "As this was our 70th anniversary, we were very keen to get in touch with former cadets still living in the area and I was delighted that we made contact with a number of them who joined us on this special day. It was a unique opportunity for today's cadets to meet some of the people who helped found the organisation."

Mr Kimber said: "The ATC is a fine organisation and should be congratulated on 70 years of giving thousands of young people many wonderful opportunities and experiences that provide them with many life skills and good spirit for their futures"

Parade commander Flight Lieutenant Liam Bright said: "It was a great honour to be in Weymouth to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the formation of the ATC. The cadets were excited and proud to be representing cadet associations throughout Dorset."

"The reception and support from the council, police and the Mayor's office throughout the preparation and on the day was exemplary and we would like to thank all for their welcome and support."

The Air Training Corps was founded in 1941, and now has more than 40,000 cadets in nearly 1,000 squadrons throughout the United Kingdom. Cadets are aged between 13-18 years, and participate in activities including flying, gliding, drill, model making, sport, the Duke of Edinburgh's Award Scheme and aviation studies.

Join the park walk!

■ LAUNCHING the 2011 Great Park charity walks are, front, from the left, British Heart Foundation fund raising volunteer Zoe Nicholson, St John's headteacher Diana Mason, Dinah Ellis of the Friends of Lodmoor Country Park holding two-year-old Lois Lester and Weymouth and Portland parks development officer Tara Gooding.

CHILDREN showed their hearts were in the right place when they helped launch a major charity event.

The 2011 Great Parks charity walk and family challenge will be held on April 10th and the British Heart Foundation was officially launching it at St John's C of E Primary School in Weymouth.

This year's event will be the fourth such walk in aid of the BHF and it will consist of three walks, all starting and finishing at Lodmoor Country Park.

An eight-mile route will go through Greenhill Gardens, the Nothe Gardens, the Rodwell Trail and Sandsfoot Gardens with checkpoints, refreshments and support provided by the Friends of Lodmoor Country Park.

There will also be a 3.5-mile family challenge and a Toddlers' Trail for toddlers and pre-school children to enjoy round Lodmoor Country Park.

Local BHS spokesman Peter Rendall said: "The charity parks event is a wonderful opportunity to encourage people to enjoy a fun, healthy

by Harry Walton

and informative walk around the gardens of Weymouth with friends and family.

"It also gives their hearts a good work out while raising vital awareness and crucial funds to help beat heart disease.

"This year we are delighted to welcome the support of St John's School which will be a great boost for the event and a good opportunity for children, teachers and parents to get involved."

St John's headteacher Diana Mason said: "We are delighted to be involved this year.

"The school raises money for many charities so taking part in an event which involves exercise in support of a good cause is a wonderful opportunity for the children.

"All of us know of people with heart concerns and our school knows from first hand experience that children are not excluded from heart problems. I hope that many of our parents bring their families and join in with the walk to raise money for this worthy cause."

Weymouth and Portland leisure spokesman Councillor Roger Allen said the event was a great way to raise awareness and highlight some of the many improvements made in parks and open spaces developments.

He added: "The constant enthusiasm shown by the Friends Groups and the BHF is admirable and ensures the charity walks, along with many other events that now take place in our parks and gardens, have a great future."

Those who want more information or to register should visit www.bhf.org.uk/greatparks, call 01892 893918 or email south@bhf.org.uk.

Under 16's will need to be accompanied by a parent or guardian. Entry cost is £5 for adults, £3 for children, £10 for a family of two adults and up to three children and £1 for the Toddler Trail.

Save water - get out of the shower!

OLDER generations are leading the way to a water efficient lifestyle by spending far less time in the shower than their younger peers, a survey has found.

The majority of pensioners surveyed by Wessex Water said they spent no longer than ten minutes in the shower while some younger people - particularly those aged between 11 and 14 - admitted to showering for double that time.

More than 50 per cent of people aged 40 and over showered for between five and 10 minutes and around 30 per cent were "in and out" within four minutes - the recommended showering time set by water efficiency campaigners.

People across Dorset were among those who took part in Wessex's survey when it visited towns all over its region as part of a water efficiency awareness campaign.

Wessex water efficiency analyst Kathy Burdett said that, while some young people admitted to spending a long time in the shower, others were in and out in between five and ten minutes.

She added: "The reason some young people favour longer showers remains a mystery but it is pleasing to see that many are heading in the right direction and use less water by taking shorter showers.

"The survey results indicate that shower times of between five and 10 minutes are most popular across all age groups. If these people further reduce their time in the shower they could meet the suggested four minute target set by organisations promoting water efficiency."

Wessex said that if people cut their shower time by one minute they could save on average eight litres of water if they have a standard shower and 16 litres per minute if they use a power shower.

Reducing time spent in the shower is one way to save water and installing water efficient shower heads, devices which regulate flow or simply turning the shower off while you lather can also help people cut water consumption.

Miss Burdett added: "It's also important everyone does their bit to save water throughout the year.

"Although our survey focused on water use while showering, those who prefer a bath could be more efficient by filling the tub to a lower level."

Wessex Water has helped encourage water saving in the home by giving away free WaterSave packs to its customers.

To request a WaterSave pack, which includes a device to regulate shower flow, a save a flush bag which helps save water when flushing the toilet and a self audit to help people calculate their water use, call 0845 371 0727 or visit www.wessexwatershop.co.uk.

Getting in on the big bird watch

A BIRDWATCHING walk for beginners was one of a flock of events staged in Weymouth as part of the annual national Big Garden Birdwatch.

The walk started from Radipole Lake's RSPB visitor centre and was led by information officer Luke Phillips.

He said: "We tried to provide an opportunity for those keen on the idea of getting to know more about birds a chance to brush up on simple knowledge to help them identify different species."

"It was a hugely popular event which was completely sold out, so it was a great start to the Big Garden Birdwatch."

He added that it was an extremely busy day for staff who were also acting as a gathering point for bird record sheets brought in from all over the Weymouth

by Harry Walton

area. Luke continued: "We were also here to offer advice to people keen to know how they could attract more birds to their garden."

"We suggested the type of seeds which might be useful, the fact that clean water is always important for birds and we offered advice on where to put nest boxes in time for the spring breeding season."

He added that all Big Garden Birdwatch results will be going up to RSPB headquarters in Bedfordshire for national collation before overall results are released in March.

More than 500,000 people took part nationally in the 2010 Big Garden Birdwatch.

Respecting the faith of others

A VARIETY of multi-cultural students talked to others about their faiths and cultures during the annual Beliefs Day at Weymouth College.

They also welcomed guest speaker Brian Jones into the college and he spoke to five groups of students about the Baha'i faith - which emphasises the spiritual unity of all humankind.

Students had the chance to ask any questions on faiths which they were intrigued to know more about.

One student talking about the faiths in her home-country was Princess May, 17, from Nigeria.

She said: "I lived in Nigeria for about 14 years before I came to England to study. I still have family there."

"I've enjoyed today and talking about the different faiths, especially the Baha'i which is one I have

Weymouth Matters

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

No thanks, Gok, I'll keep my clothes on

THE lights in my sitting room look so warm and enticing as I view them huddled under a damp blanket at the bottom of my garden.

The temperature is close to freezing, my teeth are chattering and my only solace is the stiff Scotch passed to me over the garden wall by my male neighbour, one of more than a dozen men up and down our road who I can see are also seeking sanctuary outside.

It is in short supply but we are all criminals, sentenced without trial to the shrub borders, lawns and garden sheds of our former homes by those cruellest of judges... women raptly watching the first in a new series of fashion programmes hosted by Gok Wan.

My own crime, to which I plead guilty, was to have the temerity to suggest that better entertainment could be gained by watching paint dry.

Seconds later I had been given a jackboot up my backside and was skidding past the bird bath to the sound of French windows being closed and locked.

I tried to bluster my way back inside but both my wife and daughter were too busy to let me in because they were lighting candles in front of an effigy of Gok Wan.

Worse I indignantly noticed that his icon appeared to have taken the place of my beloved film poster from The Magnificent Seven.

If hazy memory serves, there is still another 50 minutes of "looking good naked" to go, but every man in the road is unlikely to have to worry about that.

Far from stripping off, we are intent on hanging on to every stitch of clothing we can just to stay fashionably warm.

Loud horn, blue lights?

MUSIC lovers are on the edge of their seats at the arrival in Weymouth of a top conductor.

I can exclusively reveal that, while no concert date or venue has been announced yet, the conductor is already out and about practising.

Strangely he seems to favour wearing dirty clothing and the surrounds of a battered white van travelling at speed along a public road to fine tune his skills.

But there can be no doubt about his commitment since he had both hands off the wheel at the same time while making imperious gestures reminiscent of Leonard Bernstein or Leopold Stokowski in full cry.

Culture is so important in our lives and I will happily join others in the ticket queue for his first performance which will hopefully be Beethoven's little known work for Horn and Blue Lights!

Useful security measure or light pollution?

IT may be normal for nights to be getting shorter but it also appears that they are getting unnaturally lighter.

The other evening I had to go out on a job which was quite close to where I live, so I decided to leave the car at home and walk there.

Well, you know how it is, you start walking and you go into a sort of auto pilot where your mind thinks of this and that without consciously directing your legs to move forward.

Suddenly there was a searing flash, darkness was banished in an instant and there I stood on the pavement bathed in the glare from a security light like some reluctant performer on a stage.

It startled me but I started walking again and thought no more about it...only for my passage to trigger another security light which again lit up the street.

In all I suppose I walked half a mile during which time a total of four security lights went off.

Now I know of other security lights in my own road and at least three more in nearby roads, so just how widespread is their influence?

I checked on national surveys and domestic security lighting was revealed as the second biggest source of light pollution behind street lighting.

Both my neighbours have security lamps and they certainly light up the garden.

But security lights are a bit like fire, a good servant but a bad master, because I've seen them triggered many times by things such as waving branches.

I'm certain it's reassuring for owners to know they have a front line defence against crime or simply instant light to guide them to their door when they arrive home in the dark, but I do wonder if it's getting out of hand.

• Austen Whetham & Guest Solicitors

SOLICITORS practice Austen Whetham & Guest, recognised for its professionalism, is building on the expertise of its three resident partners and developing a network of legal consultants.

For over 100 years AWG has been providing high quality legal advice at a fair price. The firm's success is founded upon excellent knowledge in our chosen legal areas of practice: Family; Wills and Probate; Property; Civil Disputes.

The firm works both locally and nationally. We take care to supervise and monitor the quality of work carried out on behalf of our clients.

Over the last few years we have expanded our work area into London, and across the South and South West England. This has led to the development of an innovative practice in which some of our solicitors are self employed consultants.

We have a small central office in Bridport where our partners and staff continue to run the firm and support consultants who run their own practices.

We are therefore able to offer a bespoke professional service where home visits and out of hours appointments to our clients are the norm:

Our partners are:

● Scott Bowley - who undertakes dispute resolution, civil disputes and property matters;

● Peter Alexander - who lived and worked for many years in London and undertakes matrimonial cases for high net worth clients;

● Elizabeth West - who undertakes property and wills and probate matters.

We have recently appointed a consultant in the Bridport area.

● Lorraine Burkey has recently moved from Bath to Bridport to raise her family. Having spent several years working in Bath, she undertakes Will preparation; Living Will Powers of Attorney and Probates.

Lorraine is working towards completing the Society of Trusts and Estate Practitioners qualifications. She is happy to arrange appointments in your own homes or see clients out of office hours.

Scott Bowley the senior partner of Austen Whetham & Guest said: "We are delighted to welcome Lorraine. Her presence strengthens our already strong team."

"We offer accessible, flexible and expert legal advice to anyone requiring our services."

Homes&Interiors

Chris Rudge

Solar Photovoltaic electricity, (PV), fitted at home or business has grown massively over the last year after introduction by the Government Feed in Tariff (FIT) Financial Incentive, paying people to generate their own electricity.

This has motivated both environmentally aware people and long term investors to opt for having Solar Power installed on their homes, offices or factories.

A Solar PV system has a 25 year life of generating electricity for use by you during daylight, has no moving parts or expensive servicing and with the Feed in Tariff, will pay for itself in around 10 years or less. You'll receive quarterly payments which can amount to over £1000 a year (for a 3kWp system), free to use electricity plus additional payments for exporting your excess power onto the grid.

To obtain these generous FiT payments from your Solar PV system, the installation company needs to be Microgeneration Certification Scheme (MCS) approved and hold relevant electrical qualifications. On completion, you will be issued with an MCS certificate to enable you to obtain Feed in Tariff payments.

The leading MCS approved installer for this area, Chris Rudge Renewable Power, has been fitting Solar PV systems since 2005, and having built up a friendly team of fully experienced installers, providing the Solar PV installation market with years of experience coupled with advantageous installation costs which effectively maximise your investment.

Based in Seaton with their premises by the River Axe, they are ideally situated near the Devon/Dorset border to carry out cost effective installations throughout the South West.

The majority of systems are installed within days, most of the work is on the roof, with some electrical works inside the house. Solar PV systems will be fitted with the minimum of fuss.

All Chris Rudge Renewable Power Solar PV systems come with a standard 5 year warranty for the whole installation, plus a manufacturers 25 year output warranty.

If you are considering having one of these Green investment systems fitted to your home or business, don't delay as there is only just over a year left of the higher rate Feed in Tariff, call Chris Rudge Renewable Power now on 01297 306114 for free, friendly and no obligation advice or site survey. www.chrisrudge.co.uk.

The Fireplace & Stove Centre

The fireplace and stove centre is situated in Dorchester and is a family run business established since 1999.

We have grown not only in size but in reputation and have become one of Dorset's premier fireplace and stove retailers.

We have a small but extensive showroom with many fireplaces with live gas and electric fires. We have many fireplaces on show in stone marble and wood also on display are our wide selection of live wood and multi fuel stoves where you can experience the ambience of a real fire.

With our friendly advice we aim to help you choose the right fireplace or stove turning your house in to a home.

We can offer a free and no obligation site survey by one of our recommended fully registered installers for further advice.

From traditional to contemporary, gas, electric or solid fuel. Why not visit our showroom where we will be pleased to see you at Millers Close, Dorchester, Dorset, DT1 1SS or call us on 01305 751700.

Art4All

Originally established as Treasured Memories in St Mary Street in Weymouth that specialised in nautical collectables and antiques, we found that very substantial numbers of our customers were buying the nautical and maritime pictures that we stocked, getting us to frame them and then bringing all types of pictures to us for that special touch!

Following the closure of the shop in 2006, due to escalating rent and rates, we decided to make life easier for our customers so we went MOBILE!

PICTURE FRAMING for Prints, Watercolours, Acrylics & Oil Paintings

It is really quite astonishing the difference a good frame makes to a picture, let us show you. You can so easily ruin the image by placing it into a frame that is mass produced (probably of plastic or resin) and 'about' the right size.

So much more professional is the result achieved by having bespoke framing on a picture.

Whether you have a print, watercolour, acrylic or oil (all of which need slightly different processes) a professional mount and frame will bring a piece of art to life and really look beautiful.

We hand make our frames on our premises (not like so many outlets who send it away to a contractor) and you can choose from literally hundreds and hundreds of different mouldings and mounts.

We offer a service we believe to be unique!

Dorset's MOBILE PICTURE FRAMING Service

By that we mean we come to you - up to a 20 mile radius of Dorchester - make an appointment for us to call on you to discuss mouldings, mounts and glass and provide you with a firm price, if you agree to our figure we then take your print/ photo /oil etc away and frame it, returning it ready to hang in just a few days (subject to stock availability)

We carry out framing for artists, galleries, trade suppliers along with private buyers and we know our charges are among the lowest in the area.

▲ Underpinning the moulding to make the frame

▲ Stapling backing in to complete the picture

Conservatory Blinds are our Specialty!

We have a wide range of options available from our 'Standard Pleated Roof Blind' to the revolutionary 'Perfect Fit' system that simply clips into place. For the side windows of your conservatory, the choice is endless in regards to type and style of blind, fabrics, etc.

Every so often a product arrives on the market that revolutionizes the industry.

Perfect-Fit... A remarkable innovation using a simple snap on operation where the blind is fitted neatly without fuss, no drilling and no screws. Window suppliers and conservatory companies are now often specifying Perfect Fit in preference to the normal options which use brackets that have to be drilled and screwed to the frames.

Due to its unique construction Perfect-Fit becomes an integrated part of the window, framing the blind eliminating almost all light gaps.

Our Pleated blinds are the ideal shading solution designed exclusively for your conservatory roof, able to cover almost any angle or shape and available in Translucent SPC, (Solar Protective Coating), or Black Out Heat Reflective fabrics keeping you 'warm in winter and cool in summer'.

Expert Maintenance Services

Expert Maintenance Services Ltd - Owned and operated by Mike Coppinger based in Weymouth in Dorset.

Mike served his apprenticeship with a very large local firm of Upvc window/door/conservatory installers and prior to setting up EMS was one of the top team for building conservatories.

When he set up EMS the intention was to provide work of an exceptional quality at a fair price - as a result the company has continued to grow year on year.

Whilst based in Weymouth we have customers with properties as far afield as Newcastle and London.

We have the expertise not only for Upvc works - windows, doors and conservatories - but also general property maintenance, hard landscaping, decking, tiling, plumbing repairs, shop fitting, kitchen and bathroom installations, paving (i.e. driveways and paths), painting and decorating, guttering, fascias, GRP roofing (replace that old felt roof!).

NO JOB IS TOO SMALL FOR US - YOU NAME IT AND WE CAN DO IT

Common Sense

Piping daylight down a tube? The amount of light coming down a Solutube is really very impressive, providing as much as you can expect from a skylight many times its size.

They are also affordable, costing less than other options such as windows and skylights. Installing is fast, clean and easy, requiring no structural work.

The compact design allows them to be installed in just about any room where day lighting would not be an option. Solutubes allow you to switch off electric lights during the day, which provides savings on energy bills and also reduces environmental pollution. It has been shown in several prominent studies that increasing exposure to natural light can enhance mental and physical well-being as well as enhancing a properties value. They also block UVb/c radiation, thus pictures, clothing and furniture don't fade.

CommonSense are the approved local installer covering the south west and can be contacted on 01460 61824, light@commonsenseuk.co.uk.

One of the South's leading coach hire companies

Southern Coaches is one of the South's leading coach hire companies. At the heart of our business is our commitment to customer service and our drive to deliver real value. By quoting competitively and working with our customers, we have seen our repeat business grow and our customer base deepen.

Every day, right across the South and further afield (including mainland Europe), we transport our passengers safely and in comfort. Our vehicles really do criss-cross the country and our drivers are chosen and trained to keep their passengers both safe and informed.

Our customers range from schools (both Primary and Secondary) to Universities. We have a particular specialism in the language schools sector and are a chosen supplier for airport pickup and drop off as well as cultural and leisure trips. We also look after a number of corporate clients and are always attentive to their specific needs.

We make no compromise on the quality of our vehicles. Whether it's a 70-seater executive coach or simply a minibus, our focus is on making sure that hiring from Southern Coaches is always a positive experience. Even at short notice, we can quickly supply vehicles from our modern fleet. For those occasions when we don't have a vehicle available ourselves, we can use our industry contacts to organise one. Typically, with just 24 hours' notice, we can supply a vehicle that matches our high specifications.

We make it fast and easy to arrange a quotation and complete a booking. What's more, we always supply a quotation that's specific to the request not one that's "off the shelf". And with generous discounts for advance payment, we can make the cost even more competitive.

Perhaps now is a good time to find out what Southern Coaches can offer - call Southern Coaches on 01305 303 303.

Dorset's premier quality fireplace design company

Stone's Fireplaces is a family run business established in 1876, and Dorset's premier fireplace design company. They can accommodate the needs of all homeowners, and are experts in installation in listed buildings, farmhouses and cottages.

Stone's Fireplaces is a traditional company and is dedicated to offering first class service. They specialise in the supply and installation of woodburning and multifuel stoves, gas fires and fireplaces. Stone's Masonry division create and manufacture beautiful bespoke natural stone fireplaces. All work is carried out by their own in-house expert team of installers.

A new addition to their professional services is Stone's Chimney Solutions, which is a full chimney sweeping and maintenance service. The aim is to ensure their clients are safe, using their fires and stoves correctly, using the correct fuels and maintaining their investment. Stone's work to the highest standards and are approved HETAS engineers and members of NACS (National Association of Chimney Sweeps). This is all important as most insurance companies will no longer pay out for claims unless there is evidence that the chimney has been professionally swept and a valid and current certificate of sweeping has been issued.

Beautiful fashion boutique for 'real' women

Figure Eight located in Antelope Walk Dorchester specialises in fashion for "real" women from sizes 16 to 30.

The shop is the brainchild of proprietor Elaine Keetch, a designer who ran successful businesses in Bath, Wells and Yeovil before relocating to Dorchester.

Elaine explains, "several of my friends were bemoaning the fact that as plus size girls, they were disappointed with the range of day and occasion wear available. I felt that there was a real problem for ladies who were not in the size 8 to 12 range who still needed clothing to suit their lifestyle and I decided to specialise in finding the very best clothes in sizes up to 30".

Since opening in Dorchester the collections have grown, stocking labels from across Europe, Chalou, Sempre Prui, Be The Queen, Rhiona Stone to name a few.

Due to the demand for the collections, Elaine is looking at stocking some ranges from a size 12.

Figure Eight has launched their new website where you can browse the new autumn/ winter collections and can be made aware of seasonal promotions and events.

Personal shopping experiences will also soon be available for those who find it difficult to come during shop opening or for a personal shopping experience to share with friends and have fun for an evening.

As always, we also stock a fantastic range of handbags, wraps, jewellery and other accessories whatever your size.

If you have not yet visited us, please call in for a warm welcome or look online at www.figure8collection.co.uk

Buy local at Every Cloud

Every Cloud boutique in Dorchester specialises in handmade jewellery, accessories and gifts. The collection of work from local designers is constantly developing and now includes jewellery, knitwear, bags, greetings cards and artwork. As these products are handmade and often one off designs there is always something new in store, with the most recent addition being up cycled vintage costume jewellery. By working closely with the producers Every Cloud are also able to offer bespoke commissions on many items.

Meet Paul and Patrick Ackerman of Bathroom Inspirations

Tell us what the last 12 months has meant for your business.
2010 has been surprising, we have had a very strong year, especially off the back of our open day which welcomed Villeroy & Boch to our showroom.

What new products or services are you offering your customers?
We have added Villeroy & Boch amongst others. We feel that they are a great addition to our showroom with their proven background and exclusivity. We are always looking at new products as bathroom design is changing continuously and we feel it is extremely important to keep the showroom up to date with new designs and ideas to give customers inspiration.

What do you see as your unique selling point?
Not only are we the only independent bathroom showroom in Dorchester but we have a very strong family connection with us being identical twins and having worked in the industry for the last 25 years together (and still talking). We have experience and knowledge using each others, best assets, ensuring a 1st class and unique experience for our customers.

How are you feeling about the forthcoming year?
Confident. As previously mentioned, the last few months of 2010 have been very good and we are looking forward to building on this in 2011.

Roxy turnback the clock

ROXY MUSIC

Sunday 30th January

Manchester Evening News Arena

ROXY Music have made the odd festival appearance in recent times, but this latest jaunt is their first UK tour for ten years. Those 2001 shows - when the band played together for the first time since 1982 - were to celebrate the group's 30th anniversary. Now it's their 40th.

Roxy is very much a nostalgia act these days, with any new material always being released in the shape of a Bryan Ferry solo album, featuring the odd guest appearance from one of the Roxy gang.

Although founding member Brian Eno features on Ferry's latest album - 2010's well received Olympia - he's not here tonight. Which is a real shame, as the setlist boasts enough material from the first two Eno flavoured Roxy albums for him to get his teeth into.

Yes, nostalgia may be the name of the game here but it's not all about the hits. Many people's idea of the band may well be a suave guy in a tuxedo with a set of smooth sounding tunes to which you can literally Dance Away. But early Roxy was significantly edgier, often challenging and not all that often music to dance to either.

Although it might be surprising to find the band going back to their formative years, it's even more of a surprise that half the audience - paying at least £65 for the pleasure - have never heard this material in the first place.

But the hits are here. It's just that it's an hour into the set before the casual fan could put a string of tunes together that they know. But for the hardcore fan it's bit of a dream setlist. And the audience loves it, with the crowd on their feet from start to finish - even those who seem unfamiliar with the material.

Ferry himself looks as debonair as ever even though both his features and vocal chords are beginning to show signs of age. But this is a group of sixtiesomethings playing near 40-year-old tunes with enough energy and enthusiasm to put bands a third of their age to shame. The show's classy visuals - a mixture of modern day wizardry and Seventies pseudo-chic - only added to the vibe.

The evening's highlights included a blistering cover of Neil Young's 'Like A Hurricane', complete with mesmerising guitar work by Phil Manzanera (demonstrating why David Gilmour asked him to join his last touring band).

Andy Mackay had a chance to shine in the spotlight with - if anyone doubts the art rock credentials - an oboe solo on 'Tara', which couldn't have been a greater contrast to proto-punk rocker 'Editions Of You'.

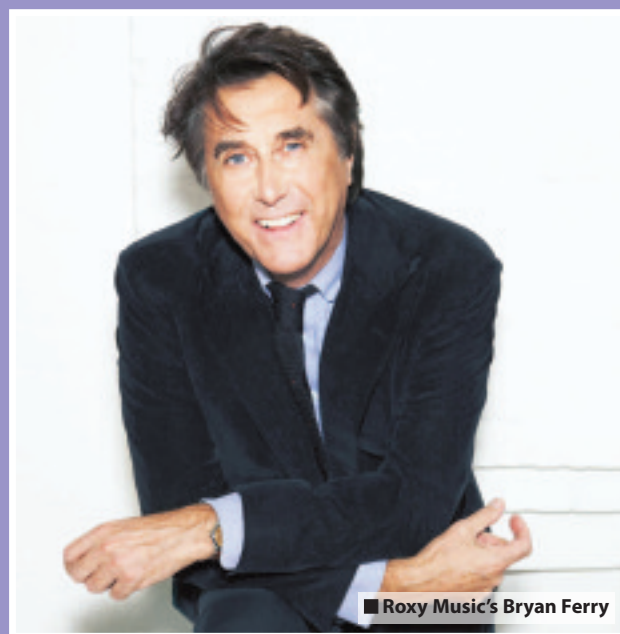

In fact, the setlist could not have been anymore eclectic; from the glam-country fusion of 'Prairie Rose', the disco-tinged ennui of 'Same Old Scene' to atmospheric piano piece 'For Your Pleasure'.

Even the support acts were unbelievably varied with Dixieland three-piece Hot Club Of Cowtown following the excellent London ska outfit, No 1 Station.

Roxy Music may no longer be a creative force in terms of new music, but as a live act they're still a powerhouse.

● Roxy Music played: The Main Thing / Street Life / Pyjamarama / If There Is Something / Prairie Rose / Just Like You / Amazona / 2HB / Like A Hurricane / Tara / Bitter Sweet / Sentimental Fool / To Turn You On / Same Old Scene / My Only Love / Avalon / Jealous Guy / Virginia Plain / Love Is The Drug / Editions Of You / Do The Strand / For Your Pleasure

Ure Uncovered

MIDGE Ure really needs no introductions; his career speaks for itself. Grammys, Ivor Novellos, BASCAPs, gold and platinum discs and a variety of other accolades, including an OBE can all grace his mantelpiece.

By the time Midge Ure's single "If I Was" went to No1 in 1985 he had already crammed several musical lifetimes into a 10 year professional career speaks volumes - Silk, The Rich Kids, Thin Lizzy, Visage, Ultravox and of course the most famous one off group in musical history Band Aid had by then all had the guiding hand of his musical navigation.

Midge is the master of re-invention, secure in the knowledge that there will always be a market for a good song, sung with passion! Equally comfortable in a variety of formats, this time he has chosen to perform an intimate acoustic show combining a selection of his own hits from Vienna via If I Was to Dancing with Tears In My Eyes, with some of his favourite songs by other artists such as Peter Green's Fleetwood Mac and David Bowie.

The "Uncovered" show gives him chance to explore his musical roots and share some of the anecdotes and journeys that his career has followed. Like the man himself, it does what it says on the tin...

Midge Ure is playing at the Electric Palace on Thursday, April 28th. Tickets are on sale now for £18.50 from Bridport Tourist Info Centre on 01308 424901

UNCOVERED | Midge Ure will play an intimate show at the Electric Palace

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

IN December we featured a poem from Dorchester reader, Kay Ennals. Here is another poem from her pen. It gives us a timely reminder of how fortunate we are to live in this beautiful English county.

WILD FLORA OF DORSET

Along the rivers, along the coast the native flora, with colour, boast their flamboyant delicate flowers.
The wind-borne seeds of Autumn spread in forest, coppice and hedgerow - hid till the stirring and surging of spring.
A blaze of white on a snowdrop hill - a haze of blue where the bluebells thrill - and cowslip rove by a primrose grove.
Wild orchids flourish on marsh and heath casting their wondrous air of mystique - to contrast in colour, structure and shape.
Helping to cover the woodland floor is the fragile wind flower with helleborine - and also pink thistle and celandine.
Buttercups show their face to the sun,
in the vales of the Stour and the Frome, marigolds bloom - so does bright yellow broom.
Over the heath of purple heather lies a carpet of colour attracting the bees - while, suddenly, blood red poppies arise.
In Dorset these flowers are growing wild - bringing prestige to our countryside - a heritage rich - a premise of pride.

BEFORE we get to Valentine's Day this year perhaps you should consider Thomas Moore's experience of the 'light that lies in woman's eyes'.

THE TIME I'VE LOST

The time I've lost in wooing,
In watching and pursuing
The light that lies
In woman's eyes,
Has been my heart's undoing.
Tho' Wisdom oft has sought me,
I scorn'd the lore she brought me,
My only books
Were women's looks,
And folly's all they taught me.
Her smile when Beauty granted,
I hung with gaze enchanted,
Like him the Sprite
Whom maids by night
Oft meet in glen that's haunted.
Like him, too, Beauty won me;
But when the spell was on me,
If once their ray
Was turn'd away,
O! winds could not outrun me.
And are those follies going?
And is my proud heart growing
Too cold or wise
For brilliant eyes
Again to set it glowing?
No -- vain, alas! th' endeavour
From bonds so sweet to sever: --
Poor Wisdom's chance
Against a glance
Is now as weak as ever.

BUT we never learn from the experiences of others do we, as John Boyle O'Reilly was old enough to know when he wrote this verse.

EXPERIENCE

The world was made when a man was born,
He must taste for himself the forbidden springs;
He can never take warning from old-fashion'd things;
He must fight as a boy, he must drink as a youth,
Of the friend of his soul; he must laugh to scorn
The hints of deceit in a woman's eyes--
They are clear as the wells of Paradise.
And so he goes on till the world grows old,
Till his tongue has grown cautious, his heart
has grown cold,
Till the smile leaves his mouth, till the ring
leaves his laugh,
And he shirks the bright headache you ask him to quaff.
He grows formal with men, and with women polite,
And distrustful of both when they're out of his sight.
Then he eats for his palate and drinks for his head,
And loves for his pleasure,--and 'tis time he was dead.

Magical Malina's Dream is a treat for the kids

TREAT your children to some wide-eyed winter magic; join the baby penguin, walrus and the ice-bear on an adventure you'll never forget.

Angel Heart Children's Theatre return to Dorchester with their magical production Malina's Dream that explores the themes of friendship and finding the way between two worlds. The two performers James Richardson and Ella Turk-Richards work breath-taking puppets and sing and create live music to bring these characters to life in a spell-binding show suitable for everyone over the age of four.

Malina is an excitable young girl who lives with her Grandpa in the land of the midnight sun. After dreaming of a stranger, trapped on a ship in the crushing ice, Malina discovers her dream has become reality. Knowing she is the only one who can save the stranger's life... with just a little help from Grandpa and his magic drum! They set out on an adventure that takes them from the land of dreams and spirits out across their own frozen world!

A warm-hearted tale inspired by true-life encounters between 19th century Scottish sailors and the Inuit communities of the Arctic.

Performances of Malina's Dream take place at Dorchester Arts Centre on Friday, February 4th at 1pm and 6pm. For tickets or more details call the box office on 01305 266926 or visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

The Wolves of Willoughby Chase!

FOREST Forge Theatre Company and the Nuffield Theatre, Southampton, present the Wolves of Willoughby Chase at Lyme Regis' Marine Theatre today (Wednesday, February 2nd).

A thrilling adventure set in an alternative history of England, The Wolves of Willoughby Chase is the story of two brave and determined girls who have to struggle against ferocious wolves, snowy wastelands and a very evil guardian, Miss Slighcarp.

The story imagines that the opening of the Channel Tunnel has led to dangerous wolves roaming Britain. This is not the only danger that cousins Bonnie and Sylvia, and their friend Simon the Goose-boy, must face as they encounter unforgettable characters and mysterious scheming. Reminiscent of Dickens and Edward Gorey, The Wolves of Willoughby Chase will be thrilling, funny and spectacular with lush music, animation and innovative staging.

Jurassic Journey premieres at the Marine Theatre

THE world premiere of the stunning 'Jurassic Journey' by Ben Osborne takes place at The Marine Theatre next Thursday, February 10th.

'Jurassic Journey' is a multi-media celebration of Jurassic Coast World Heritage Site, presented by award-winning photographer and popular presenter Ben Osborne, stills photographer for BBC natural history programmes, 'Life in the Freezer' and 'Planet Earth'.

Showcasing his amazing photography, video and sound recordings, the evening also features specially commissioned music (composed by Dorset's Sammy Hurden), poetry (written by Devon-based Matt Harvey) and engaging flotsam and jetsam characters created by local artist/sculptor Lal Hitchcock.

Commentary, audio-visual sequences, soundscapes and humour will create a richly entertaining evening for anyone interested in what happens when four artists take a close (and occasionally sideways) look at a coast near you.

Presented by Villages in Action (Devon) and Art-sreach (Dorset).

Tickets for the event, which takes place on Thursday, February 10th, are £10 (£8 concessions), contact the box office on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com for tickets or more details.

THIS WEEK'S NEW RELEASES

THE FIGHTER¹⁵

As a welterweight from the wrong side of the tracks, Dickie Eklund is the pride of working class Lowell, Massachusetts. Living in his shadow is his half-brother and sparring partner Micky Ward. It's part of the Irish pride to let Dickie lead the way and win a championship belt first. However, after suffering a humiliating defeat to Sugar Ray Leonard, Dickie plunges into a nightmare of crack addiction, violence and prison. His family's hopes are crushed in the wake of Dickie's demise. Like a real life Rocky, Micky fights on his own terms and pulls his family out of despair with his meteoric rise in the ring.

JAMES CAMERON'S SANCTUM¹⁵

The 3-D action-thriller Sanctum follows a team of underwater cave divers on a treacherous expedition to the largest, most beautiful and least accessible cave system on Earth. When a tropical storm forces them deep into the caverns, they must fight raging water, deadly terrain and creeping panic as they search for an unknown escape route to the sea. Master diver Frank McGuire has explored the South Pacific's Esa-ala Caves for months. But when his exit is cut off in a flash flood, Frank's team-including 17-year-old son Josh and financier Carl Hurley are forced to radically alter plans. With dwindling supplies, the crew must navigate an underwater labyrinth to make it out. Soon, they are confronted with the unavoidable question: Can they survive, or will they be trapped forever?

Exhibition and talk at Slader's Yard

STEWART Jones' debut exhibition is the result of five years spending every spare moment painting. He has been a keen collector of contemporary art for many years and has been encouraged by artist friends to set down his own ideas on canvas. The results are graphic and vibrant pictures of the coastal cliffs of Dorset, through the vineyards, olive groves and lavender fields of France and Spain to the coast of Sicily. Painted in bright uplifting colours, they are full of the sunshine we all yearn for at this time of year.

Stewart and his wife Jenny lived in Little Bredy near Bridport for twenty-five years and it is only since leaving Dorset that he has found time to develop his fascination with painting. At school, Stewart was lucky enough to have an inspirational art teacher, the painter Bruce Killeen who had been tutor at the Royal Academy Schools and Art Critic for the Guardian. His guidance on the use of space, form and colour form the backbone of Stewart's style now.

Stewart Jones will give a talk on Friday, February 4th at 7.30pm at Sladers Yard, West Bay. Tickets cost £5, call 01308 459511 to book or for more details. The Licensed cafe will be open serving dinner before and after the talk. Booking is advisable. A highly entertaining speaker, Stewart Jones will talk about the art he loves, the places he paints and the techniques he uses. An exhibition of Stewart's work is currently running at Yard Gallery, and will be displayed until March 13th.

Guests can also visit the hotel's bridal suite which will contain examples from stand holders displayed as they would be on the big day.

Said Carrie Southwell, Proprietor of the Fairwater Head Hotel 'We have concentrated on getting a wide selection of stands and exhibitors from a wedding singer to a harpist, handmade jewellery to marquees, make up to wedding dresses and wedding cakes to stationery. We really want to ensure every bride to be leaves the wedding fayre with lots of ideas for her big day'.

The hotel itself is situated close to Hawkchurch - the 'village of roses' - just four miles from Axminster and five miles from Lyme Regis so the wedding fayre is easy to reach from all local major centres. As well as the wedding fayre the hotel itself makes a great venue for small intimate weddings and larger parties can take over the hotel or use a marquee in the grounds. Also the hotel now has its own civil wedding licence - what better setting for your wedding.

See next week's edition of this paper for a full double page spread giving the full details of this exciting event on the Devon, Somerset and Dorset border.

Yoga classes in Bridport

YOGA classes for all abilities are held in the centre of Bridport every Monday. The classes have been running for a number of years and are welcoming and friendly. People of all ages and abilities attend, and many have found that Yoga can help alleviate all kinds of problems.

The aim of the classes is to enable people to work with what they have in order to improve strength and flexibility. Relaxation techniques are taught and tips given to use at home.

The teacher, Lesley Wilson, started learning in her teens, having trained with many teachers, holds a British Wheel of Yoga teaching diploma and has been teaching for 12 years. She is also trained in Pregnancy Yoga.

Yoga can help!

Lesley says "I love Yoga. I started learning in my teens but stopped after fracturing 2 vertebrae in a riding accident. I did the physiotherapy and daily swim recommended but was still in constant pain. Then, after starting yoga again, the pain eased. That's when I became hooked - I'm now a British Wheel of Yoga trained teacher. Yoga has brought me many more benefits over the years and I'm passionate about passing the benefits on.

"If you would like to try out a friendly, welcoming class, then come along to the centre of Bridport on Monday afternoons."

Alexandra Hotel and Restaurant

Celebrate Valentine's Day at a 'Most Excellent Waterside Hotel'

THE 'Love Lyme Valentine Celebration Menu' will be running from Friday, February 11th to Monday, February 14th at the Alexandra Hotel and Restaurant in Lyme Regis.

As the winner of the prestigious Conde Nast Johansens 'Most Excellent Waterside Hotel' Award for 2011, the elegant Alexandra with its fabulous location overlooking the Cobb and our stunning Dorset coastline makes the perfect place for a Valentine celebration. For this romantic time of the year, their chef has prepared a fittingly special menu using the wealth of produce, we are lucky enough to have at our finger tips in our beautiful county. Think Portland Oysters, Local Venison, Lyme Bay Turbot and more... A bubbling glass of pink Champagne served with Canapés starts off your 6 course Valentine evening. Served in the elegant ballroom style Alexandra restaurant... think candles, white linen, crystal glasses, silver tableware and thoughtful service, this has to be an evening to remember. Why not soak up the ambience of this elegant grade II listed building a little longer and book into one of the hotel's glamorous rooms, and spend the night in a king-size bed, waking up to one the best views on the West Dorset coast. If the mood of the evening inspires a proposal, then the hotel has a wedding license, too!

For bookings please contact the Alexandra on 01297 442010, visit www.hotelalexandra.co.uk or for further information you can also email info@hotelalexandra.co.uk

Valentine's Fayre

Say I love you in the old fashioned way

A FREE one-day Valentine's Fayre combining music, dancing and teas with beautiful gifts, takes place at Dorset County Museum on Sunday, February 13th, from 10am to 3pm.

Listen to live music from past decades with Johanna Wolff and her talented musicians. Enjoy vintage tea and cakes from Vintage Dorset and take a spin on the dance floor with a friendly caller and simple steps (dancing at 11am and 1pm).

With romantic and gorgeous gifts including homewares, cards, flowers, and jewellery plus vintage gowns, evening wear and retro fashions, plus a selection of fabulous handbags and accessories.

For weddings, engagements and anniversaries, discover a range of photography, cakes, flowers and other services to bring a touch of magic to your special occasion.

This unique event is a collaboration between retro and vintage enthusiasts, craftspeople and hand-makers, musicians, singers and local artisans all living and working in and around Dorchester. The Fayre is kindly sponsored by the Co-operative Membership and Dorset County Museum.

Millside Restaurant

Enjoy your magic moments at the Millside Restaurant

ENJOY a relaxing evening of tasty, locally sourced, homemade dishes with your loved one at the Millside Restaurant, Lyme Regis.

They will be serving a special Valentines menu on Friday, February 11th, Saturday 12th and Monday 14th from 6.30-9pm. Full of delights that you'll enjoy eating, with no fancy Valentine's gimmicks, just a lovely romantic setting down by the mill with delicious food.

Richard Benson, Manager at the Millside said: "We've chosen to individually price all of our dishes this year, so you and your partner can decide how many courses you fancy!

"I don't know if this will help move things along for any of you lovers out there but Jess (Hodder, also a manager at the Millside) and I recently got engaged during our holiday in Barcelona, so if you need any help with special arrangements, I'm your man!"

To book at the Millside or for more details call 01297 445999.

Swallows Eaves Hotel and Reeds Restaurant

Romance in the air at the elegant Swallows Eaves

SWALLOWS Eaves Hotel is nestled in the pretty village of Colyford "where country meets coast". Elegant yet homely, it's an ideal short break retreat for exploring the Jurassic Coast or dipping into the historical heart of Exeter for shopping, theatre and entertainment.

The hotel has eight beautifully decorated guest rooms offering a high standard of hotel accommodation, with several rooms having glorious views across the wooded hills of the Axe valley. Welcomed with special touches such as local Tarka Spring water and Dorset biscuits, you can enjoy the ultimate sleeping experience tucked inside luxurious soft Egyptian cotton sheets.

But before you do, be sure not to miss the stunning dining experience in Reeds Restaurant. Taking a lead from the glorious Devon countryside and coast surrounding it, Reeds' philosophy is to serve top quality, beautifully cooked dishes using only the best in-season and locally sourced ingredients. Remodelled in 2010 into a light and airy space, Reeds offers 'Modern British and European' menus, which are updated regularly to match the changing seasons.

You are guaranteed a very warm welcome and

first-class dining experience from owner Dorothy Robson, Head Chef Paul and their dedicated team. As previous visitors can testify, whether you stay for an evening, a night, the weekend or longer, all your needs are catered for with a smile and you'll be wanting to book a return visit straightaway!

Contact Dorothy on 01297 553184 or info@swallowseaves.co.uk to make your booking or visit the website www.swallowseaves.co.uk / www.twitter.com/reedsrestaurant for more details.

Let Frank Property change your view

Allow me to introduce myself, my name is Chris Reed and I am a co founder of Frank Property. Given my passion for property, architecture, design and anything related to the home I was always destined to become an estate agent. I also love to chat, as anyone who knows me can attest to. I have worked in the area as an estate agent for 15 years and have always loved it. Today, I'm even more passionate about property as I am finally doing it exactly the way I have always wanted to, with Frank Property.

Nearly a year ago, my family and I moved to Seaton from just outside Axminster. The stars must have been aligning for me because shortly after my move I met Tristan Connell, Frank Properties' co-founder. Tristan was raised in the area and inspired by his up-bringing, has forged his own career as a successful property developer. We shared the same vision for a new breed of estate agency and could think of no better place to launch it than Seaton. Much investment is being poured into the development of our town, building on its great natural assets; such as the stunning coast-line and architecture. No doubt Seaton is changing and we want to be a part of that positive change.

When we opened in September many people felt it was a brave move in this economy. But Frank property was born out of 'this' economy. At this time of uncertainty we wanted to build a local and highly personal estate agency that people could really trust, with an inviting and homely office that people would feel comfortable in. These are some of the things that set us apart, along with our promise to provide a top level, better than expected service to all, regardless of property size or budget.

A month after we opened we took on Rory Brocken. Rory is exactly the kind of person we wanted for Frank. He is local to the area, having lived in Lyme Ba area for most of his life. He's very personable and our clients really like him and whilst he may be a local boy at heart, over the past two years he has traveled the world, working in Australia and The United States; which means he's never short of a good story!

Whilst Rory and I manage the day to day running of Frank Property, we are supported by an equally passionate and very talented team including Chartered Surveyor, James Sims-Williams. James is responsible for our online presence - important given 50% of people looking for a home now look online first!

Since opening we now have over 1000 people visiting our website each month! We also have a top-notch brand and design team, responsible for creating vibrant, interesting and appealing marketing materials at attract buyers.

If Frank Property doesn't look or act like a typical estate agent, it's because, quite simply, we are not. Why not stop in for a cup of coffee or a chat?

Residential Property Types for Investment?

With investments in banks and building societies attracting low rates of interest, our clients are looking at towards the buy to let market. But what bricks and mortar are right for you?

Here are some of our thoughts.

Town or Rural?

- Stronger tenant demand in highly populated areas
- Possibility for corporate lets in high employment areas
- Tenants may pay a higher rent closer to amenities and transport links
- Tenants in urban areas are often looking for shorter terms
- One off rural properties can be more expensive
- Rural properties often have more space inside and outside
- Rural properties are attractive to second home tenants

Large or Small?

- Large houses are popular with families often looking for longer term tenancies
- Large properties can be costly if unoccupied
- Some tenants are put off larger properties because of running costs

- Broader market for smaller properties. Rising divorce rate means more single homes wanted
- The recession means fuel bills are of bigger significance now than before
- Buying 2 small properties may mean a higher rental return

Old or New?

- Generally there is greater capital growth with older properties
- Getting an older property up to the standard for a rental property can be expensive
- There can be limitations on bringing listed buildings up to standard for letting
- Higher utility bills for tenants of older houses
- Lower maintenance costs on a new build
- Brand new properties often include white goods
- Rooms can be small in new developments

To discuss the buy to let market please call Symonds & Sampson on 01258 473766.

CORSCOMBE - £250,000

HAROLD'S Cottage is a pretty end of terrace period cottage (terrace of just three), which is well presented throughout. Believed to date back to 1580, the property is built of mainly local stone with rendered elevations, under a clay tiled roof, with a rear extension added in the late 1970s.

The cottage has been sympathetically modernised and retains period features such as exposed beams, inglenook fireplace with original stone and bread oven, and wooden latch doors. There is a large open-plan kitchen and dining area with views over the garden and from bedroom one there is a lovely view of the surrounding fields. A useful rear lobby and covered decked area lead to the large enclosed rear garden (100ft in length), which has a vegetable plot and useful workshop/studio with power and light.

Accommodation includes: entrance lobby, sitting room with inglenook fireplace, kitchen/dining room, rear lobby, ground floor bathroom, two double bedrooms, large enclosed rear garden, vegetable plot and workshop/store room

The asking price for Harold's is £250 000. To receive particulars or to arrange a viewing please contact Elder & Froy at our Beaminster office on 01308 862606. To view the full sale particulars and floor plans please go to www.elderfroy.co.uk

WOOTTON FITZPAINE - £450,000

THE property comprises an imposing period property originally the Victorian wing of a former village Rectory. The house has flint stone elevations with dressed stone quoins and string courses beneath a slate roof. It offers generously proportioned light and bright rooms which are tastefully appointed and in recent years improvements have included an excellent conservatory extension and a shower room on the second floor.

South Wing, The Old Rectory is situated in the picturesque small village of Wootton Fitzpaine in the heart of unspoilt Dorset countryside. The coastal village of Charmouth is only about 1 ¼ miles away and offers a selection of shops, church, primary school, pubs, library etc. and an extensive sandy beach. Lyme Regis is approximately 3 miles and Bridport 6 miles.

The accommodation which enjoys a sunny southerly aspect from the principal elevation, comprises: Entrance hall, cloakroom, farmhouse kitchen, drawing room, conservatory, bathroom, four bedrooms and shower room,

Outside there are attractive mature gardens situated to the south and western sides of the property laid to lawn gravelled parking area and car port.

Strictly by appointment with the vendor's agents, Martin Diplock Estate Agents & Valuers, 36 Broad Street, Lyme Regis, telephone (01297) 445500.

This stunning property has four double bedrooms plus two attic rooms, bathroom, wc, hall-way, kitchen fitted with a range of high quality wall and base units with solid oak doors and drawer fronts and granite work surfaces, dining room/study, elegant drawing room with lovely ceiling mouldings and large garden room.

The property has been sympathetically modernised to include re-wiring and installation of central heating whilst retaining original sash windows some with hidden shutters, picture rails and many original fireplaces.

A charming property! Asking price £499,950. Please call Gordon & Rumsby on 01460 30888.

BOTHENHAMPTON - £315,000

A well presented three double bedroom detached house located in a prestigious residential area of Bridport, in quiet no-through road close to the Jurassic coastal path and commanding pleasant views over Bothen hill.

The property was constructed c 1980 with attractive brick elevations and provides garage, ample parking and rear garden having raised sun terrace with wrought iron balustrading, large lawned area with mature shrubs, timber garden chalet and greenhouse. Replacement double glazed windows are fitted throughout, and in all the house provides a delightful home in a favoured location.

The kitchen/dining room has been fitted with modern cherry effect coloured units, a range of high level cupboards and complementary tiling. The bathroom is fitted with a modern white suite having a power shower over the bath and ceramic tiling. The living room has an attractive stone fireplace with open fire and patio style doors opening to a modern octagonal style conservatory with polycarbonate roof, double casement doors opening to the interesting rear garden.

The accommodation comprises 3 double bedrooms, bathroom, cloakroom, reception hall, sitting room, kitchen/dining room, conservatory, gas central heating, double glazing, garage, parking, gardens, views.

BEAMINSTER UP TO 2ND

■ But Reserves knocked-off top spot

DEVON INTERMEDIATE CUP

Eastern Area – semi-final
Exmouth Town Res 5 Farway 0

FARWAY United's long awaited County cup area semi-final was switched to Exmouth Town Reserves' Ground to avoid another possible postponement at Farway's picturesque but notoriously troublesome Eastlee Park.

The hosts took a fifth minute lead through Luke Smith and never looked back Smith bagged a second and there were further strikes from Dave Cooling (2) and Josh Kirby.

ARTHUR GAGE CUP Round One
Lyme Regis Res 2 Winsham 4

LYME Regis Reserves' grip on the Arthur Gage Cup was prised open by Winsham United in an entertaining first round tie at the Davey Fort.

The Seaside, still smarting from last week's 10-1 embarrassment at Millwey Rise, clearly went into the game as underdogs against a side destined for the premier division next season.

There was little between the sides in the opening quarter-hour but two goals in two minutes gave the visitors a stranglehold on the game that they were never to lose.

First Sam Symes capitalised on some hesitancy and lack of communication in the Lyme defence to poke Winsham ahead.

Soon after the visitors' top scorer Tom Stead doubled the lead with his 14th goal of the season leading to fears of another drubbing amongst Seaside's supporters.

But the hosts dug deep and forced their way back into the game. Lyme gave a debut to left-winger Steve Battrick, a new signing from Bridport, but it was gritty performances from fellow midfielders Danny Thirlwell, Steve Batey and Harvey Brimicombe that gave the hosts a foot-hold.

The Seaside pulled a goal back when referee Bryan Perryman awarded a penalty for a foul on Batey. Batey himself took the kick but Winsham 'keeper Chris Scott pulled off a fine stop and kept out the follow-up effort from the midfielder. But Brimicombe finally converted the third attempt.

The scored were tied on the hour when the hosts were awarded a second penalty when Brimicombe was carved down near the touchline. This time Jason Hawker took the responsibility and made no mistake for his sixth goal in Lyme colours this season.

The parity lasted just seven minutes when Symes notched his second and the burly Stead did likewise 15 minutes from time and there was no way back for Lyme.

Millwey Rise 5 Norton Athletic 4
MILLWEY Rise were surprisingly taken to extra-time after leading struggling Norton Athletic 3-0 at half-time.

Goals from Nathan Wormesley and a Sam Dibling's 18th and 19th goals of the season saw Rise apparently easing through to the last eight.

But an amazing turnaround resulted in Norton nosing ahead 4-3 with ten minutes remaining. Midfield schemer Paul Otreba hauled Rise level and Adam Whitehouse netted the winner in the 116th minute.

Rise travel to Crewkerne Town in the pick of the quarter-finals.

PREMIER

Beaminster 5 Ilminster Res 1
BEAMINSTER extended their unbeaten run to eight games and moved up a place to second with an impressive 5-1 hammering of fading Ilminster Town Reserves.

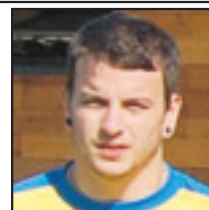

The Rainbows, missing defenders Andy David and Dan Taylor, led through a Murray Legg strike at the interval.

Tom Fletcher doubled the lead soon after restart but the visitors struck back with a rare attack on the hour which resulted in Ritchie Middleton putting through his own net.

Undeterred, Beaminster upped a gear and Sam Crocker ensured there would be no repeat of last week's performance against Merriott when two points were squandered.

Legg notched his second from close range after an incisive run and cross from 16-year-old winger Josh Baker. And the young debutant rounded things off with the fifth near the end. Beaminster's title hopes remain firmly on track, the same cannot be said for Ilminster who suffered their third successive defeat.

Combe Res 3 Perry Street 1

ON TARGET: Tom Fletcher scored his second goal for Beaminster in the 5-1 win over Ilminster Town Reserves.

IN VAIN: Jason Hawker's penalty couldn't save Lyme Regis Reserves from defeat in the Arthur Gage Cup.

TRIPLE: Ross Picketts hat-trick couldn't save Beaminster Reserves from dropping to second place.

PERRY Street slipped to the bottom of the table as Combe, with Matt Brown, Clive Parsons and Steve Every on target, eased to a 3-1 win at Slades Cross.

Merriott Rovers 1 S. Petherton 3

TITLE favourites South Petherton moved back to the top spot with a workmanlike 3-1 win at rivals Merriott Rovers.

Mark Smith gave the Rovers a 20th minute lead but Tim John leveled two minutes before the break.

John went on to complete a fine hat-trick with strikes in the 55th and 87th minutes to maintain the visitors' 100 percent start to the season.

Pethy boss Gordon Childs was obviously impressed by the performance of John and also picked out holding midfielder Jon Hayter, striker Dean Ritchie and centre-back Tom Warren.

W & M Chinnock 2 Misterton 2

A DOUBLE from Reserve team striker Neil Hawkins appeared to have put Misterton on the way to just their second win of the season.

But Nick Bond did the same at the other end to salvage a point for the Chinnocks'.

DIVISION ONE

Crewkerne Town 9 Ilminster Colts 0
THE TIGERS roared upto third place with a 9-0 demolition of struggling Ilminster Colts.

Barry Hayne (3), Paul Gold (2), Jamie Spudde (2), Adam Dawe and Harry Charles scored the goals which takes Crewkerne's league tally for the season up to 44 in just nine outings.

DIVISION TWO

Chard Rangers 4 Beaminster Res 4
A ROSS Picketts hat-trick was the highlight in poor Beaminster Reserves' performance at Jocelyn Park where they trailed Chard Rangers throughout before salvaging a point with their fourth equaliser.

Daryl Read netted the other for the Rainbows who were knocked off the top spot as a result.

Pymore 0 Dowlsh & Donyatt 3

AFTER a terrible start in which they slipped 3-0 behind inside the opening 20 minutes Pymore player-manager Matt Tither was pleased to see his side improve over the remainder of the match.

But with both Chard Rangers and Forton Reserves picking up points Tither and his squad will need to halt a run that has now brought just one win in nine to avoid being sucked into another relegation battle.

Matt Vinnall, Johnny Bartlett and Leighton Cox scored for Dowlsh who moved up to the top spot.

S.Petherton Res 2 Hawkchurch 1

A FIRST-half goal from Glenn Harding was cancelled out by a double after the restart as Hawkchurch's relegation fears grow following a 2-1 reverse at South Petherton Reserves.

Hawks' manager Nigel Harding praised Paul Chapman, up from the Reserves, for his showing at centre-back.

DIVISION FOUR

Hawkchurch Res 0 Shepton Res 7
HAWKCHURCH Reserves' player-manager Greg Harding donned the goal-keeping gloves after regular 'keeper Dave Carter was forced off with a leg injury in the 20th minute.

And Harding, better known for his exploits at the other end of the field where he has scored more than 450 goals, had a busy afternoon as visiting Shepton Beauchamp netted seven times.

Star man for a well-beaten Hawkchurch side was Martin Staples.

WEST DORSET FOOTBALL

WITH STUART BROOM

Byerley gets Rogers' reign off to a flier

WEYMOUTH 3 HALESOWEN TOWN 0

Zamaretto Premier - Att: 535

MARTYN Rogers made a winning start as Weymouth boss as Warren Byerley added another two goals to his impressive tally this season in an emphatic victory over fellow strugglers Halesowen Town.

The former Tiverton Town manager has been busy since his appointment almost three weeks ago bringing new players to the club, and on Saturday he included all six new signings in an attempt to keep the Terras Zamaretto Premier Division survival hopes alive.

It was the last of Rogers' additions, Charlie Clough on loan from Bristol Rovers, who gave Weymouth the lead before Byerley scored twice in the second half, one a penalty, to take his tally for the season to twenty in all competitions.

The victory puts Weymouth just a point behind their Midlands rivals, but with Rogers old club winning as well, it leaves them five points from safety.

Weymouth completely dominated the game and it took the visitors 85 minutes to threaten Terras on loan keeper Nick Jordan and then Rory Curtis didn't hit the target, heading over the top from a free kick.

Weymouth took command from the whistle and Ben Gerring headed over almost immediately before Byerley struck the top of the crossbar with a header from Jamie Beasley's cross in the fourth minute.

Such was Weymouth's pressure that they forced eight corners in the first half hour as Halesowen hung on like a punch drunk fighter. They finally breached the Yeltz defence on 39 minutes when another debutant Charlie Clough headed Beasley's cross just inside the far post from eight yards.

Yeltz keeper Simon Flower did well to keep out on-loan Scott Rogers effort when Matt Groves headed down Beasley's cross immediately after the restart, but he could do nothing out Byerley increasing the Terras lead three minutes later.

Another former Dorchester player, like Groves, he did well to hold off Alex Roope as they chased a headed ball out of the Weymouth defence, before turning him and curling a superb right foot shot beyond Flower and just inside the right hand post.

Frustration set in among the Halesowen side as they struggled to contain Weymouth and Michael McGrath was booked for a poor challenge on Rogers, followed by Gerring in the ensuing melee and Jamie Hatch soon after.

Byerley put the game beyond the Yeltz on 71 minutes with the perfect penalty after Flower flattened Groves as he chased a ball into the box.

Rogers reflecting on his side's performance said: "I was delighted with the attitude of all of the players, not just the new ones, but of all the team. It was pleasing to get a win under our belts but we still have a lot of work ahead.

"I am not anticipating that we will suddenly move up the table, I would suggest even with success that we will be in and around the bottom for the next month.

"However if the lads can show the same commitment as they did today then we can succeed. I think the fact that it took 85 minutes for Halesowen to have a shot shows the players wanted to win; regardless of who you are playing it takes some doing."

On whether it was a gamble to play all six new signings at once, with most of them having hardly met their colleagues, Rogers said: "It's not a gamble when you are in the position we are. Doing it when you are top of the league is a gamble, but I had no option. At the end of the day we had to improve; the squad we had here was not good enough and we needed a change and quickly, and they came up trumps."

Rogers paired Byerley, who has been a sensation this season, with on-loan Dorchester striker Groves, a player who has been a thorn in the Terras side in the past which has earned him some harsh vocal treatment from the Weymouth fans.

"Warren is playing at the top of his game at the moment. He is confident and works hard and looks like he can score at any time.

"Groover is a hard worker and has lots of ability, and they showed on Saturday that they can play together and create chances between themselves.

"As far as rivalry, at the end of the day a lot of players move clubs locally, and I don't think the fans will mind as long as he keeps creating and scoring."

Magpies press self destruct button

DORCHESTER TOWN 3 WELLING UNITED 3

Blue Square South - Att: 443

MANAGER Ashley Vickers suffered a rollercoaster of emotions as he saw his side throw away another opportunity to claim three points and in doing so slipped back into the Blue Square South relegation zone.

Dorchester pressed the self destruction button as Regan Coward had one of those days all goalkeepers dread, being responsible for all of the Welling goals, whilst Gary Bowles turned from saint to sinner when having cancelled out the Wings first goal he was needlessly sent-off in the second-half.

Having pummelled Basingstoke in midweek and been mugged by a single goal, the Magpies needed to get something against the high flying Wings, but once again they wasted the chance of victory.

Vickers made one change from that game, giving on-loan Crawley Town forward Chris Flood his home debut in place of another loanee Jayden Stockley.

For the first ten minutes it looked as if the Magpies had never played together as Welling dictated the early exchanges, and they went ahead on five minutes when Lee Clarke pounced to drive home the loose ball after Coward, under pressure from Andy Pugh, fumbled a low curling ball that bounced in front of him.

They could have extended their lead as Dorchester looked to get out the starting blocks, but fortunately Pugh, looking suspiciously offside, put his point blank header straight at Coward from Joe Healy's cross.

In a rare attack, James Coutts volley from the edge of the box following a Nick Crittenden corner, cleared the angle of the goal frame.

Without looking really threatening Dorchester equalised out of the blue when Bowles beat Loick Pires to Steve Devlin's free-kick to power home a header from 8 yards at the near post.

This seemed to kick start the Magpies, and they took control of the game. They went ahead four minutes later when Flood who had a superb debut, held the ball up well before playing in Crittenden. He sidestepped a defender before driving the ball firmly passed Mitchell Walker from 15 yards.

It was all Dorchester now and soon after Devlin drove a rasping shot just beyond the far post after he picked up the ball after his corner had been cleared.

However disaster struck just after the half hour when Coward went to the edge of his area to gather a long kick from the Welling defence which was slowly running through to him. But anxious that it may not reach him before the inrushing Louis Cumbers, he was distracted and took his eye off the ball which ran between his legs, to give the Wings striker one of the easiest goals of his career as he rolled it into an empty net.

Kyle Critchell's misplaced pass on the edge of the box gave Cumbers another chance, but Coward successfully smothered his shot before Dorchester once more grabbed the lead.

Ryan Moss, who once again led the line with panache and persistence, fed the ball to Crittenden who tricked a defender on the byline before producing an exquisite cross where Flood got above Graeme Andrews to head the ball over Walker and into the net via the underside of the crossbar.

Welling were then reduced to ten men on 43 minutes when Healy lashed out at Nathan Walker when the Dorchester defender went to wrest the ball off him to take a free-kick, and was promptly sent packing by referee Tim Wood.

Wobbling Welling held on to the break as Dorchester threatened to score again. Moss went close with an overhead kick before setting up Mark Jermyn whose volley whistled over the top.

Mitchell Walker who also did not distinguish himself in goal at the other end, then got lucky deep into added time when prostrate on his back having been beaten by Flood's shot, the ball took a deflection off a defender and dropped into his hands.

Unfortunately Nick Crittenden was forced off on the whistle with a pulled hamstring and replaced by Stockley.

A goal up and a man advantage, Dorchester should have felt confident of going on to win the game, and immediately James Coutts cleverly played in Flood who held off a defender but fired over the top. Stockley was then just wide with a header from Devlin's corner.

On the hour Moss outpaced Andrews down the left before cutting in and firing in a shot that had Walker sprawling at his near post to turn around for a corner. Then Coutts fired over after being set up by Moss.

In only their third real attempt on goal, Welling equalised on 68 minutes when Coward could only punch player-manager Jamie Day's free-kick back across goal to give Pires and easy header from close in.

Four minutes later Dorchester were also reduced to ten men when Bowles was red carded for an horrendous double footed tackle on Pires after the referee had already blown his whistle to award a free-kick to Welling when Clarke was bundled over.

With equal numbers Welling put pressure back on Dorchester and after Andrews had headed narrowly wide from a corner, Coward redeemed himself slightly with a flying save from Jamie Coyle's thundering shot.

Walker blocked Jermyn's far post header before he was once again lucky with an identical repeat of the first half when Flood threaded his way to the edge of the box. His left foot shot had Walker beaten, but once again the ball looped off a defender and dropped into the keepers hands as he lay on the ground.

Clarke could have snatched a dramatic and unfair victory it in the dying seconds when he shot wide from 10 yards with just Coward to beat.

Vickers was scathing of his team in the post-match interview.

The first half was an absolute disgrace in every way despite coming in leading 3-2, and the second-half wasn't much better. It was Sunday morning stuff, and we're paid to play football at a good level of football. I don't think they were any better than us, in fact I don't think they were as good, so it's disappointing.

"I back my players to the hilt and everyone knows that, but they are under no illusions that they need to start to paying that back. We're conceding too many goals since Christmas, and that's something we can't do. It was a game to forget for Regan; every player has them, but I'm sure he will come back stronger from it."

On Bowles dismissal he said: "It was a moment of petulance and that can only damage your team. We will lose him now for three, possibly four games, because it's his second sending off of the season and it was unnecessary; the whistle had gone.

"We were forced to change our shape and formation and move players around to positions they are unaccustomed to and it generally throws you.

I'm a winner and I intend my team to be the same. As a sportsman you need to be able to take constructive criticism and advise, and if you can't, then you won't last long."

One bright spot for Vickers was Flood's performance. "Really excellent; outstanding I thought. He was very good and the perfect foil for Mossy today, and he can only get better with more games under his belt."

Magpies mugged for second time

DORCHESTER TOWN 0 BASINGSTOKE TOWN 1

Blue Square South - Att: 304

DORCHESTER Town's relegation worries continued after they were mugged for the second time this season by Basingstoke Town at The Avenue on Tuesday night; although the goal that won it was worthy of winning any match, a stunning 30-yard left foot volley from Matt Warner.

Dorchester produced a string of chances that should have seen them out of sight at halftime with a comfortable lead, but Stoke gave a much better performance after the break to snatch the points that now puts the pressure on manager Ashley Vickers.

They almost scored within the first 30 seconds but keeper Simon Locke blocked Ryan Moss' shot at the near post, before Kyle Critchell put his header wide from the resultant corner.

After this explosive start the game became becalmed until the 18th minute when Moss' downward header beat Locke but Callum Reynolds on the line coolly headed the ball to safety.

Then Jayden Stockley's acutely angled strike was palmed over the angle of the goalf rame by Locke before he produced another fine save by beating away Critchell's vicious volley from 15 yards. Moss then hit the side netting with a volley and Stuart Lake almost headed in his own net before Stockley was unlucky with a smart back heel that just rolled wide of the post.

Basingstoke best effort in the first half came just after the half hour when Steve Laidler's dink from 20 yards just cleared the crossbar.

Dorchester's arguably best chance came four minutes from the break when Moss and Stockley combined to set up Devlin but he fired well wide from eight yards.

Basingstoke came out after the break in more determined mood and the speedy Delano Sam-Yorke cut in from the left but fired over before he found himself clear when Nathan Walker's attempted clearance rebounded of his own face into the striker's path, but Coward was quickly off his line to palm away his effort.

Then on 54-minutes Warner struck the goal that was to win the match. Receiving the ball wide on the left and with Critchell closing him down, he struck the sweetest left-foot dipping volley that gave Coward no chance at all.

Dorchester fought back and Locke just managed to reach Moss' looping header and claw it away from under the bar, before Stockley drove just wide of the far post. Locke then bravely denied Devlin and only a superb block from Jay Gasson prevented Nick Crittenden scoring.

With Dorchester pressing forward searching for an equaliser Sam-Yorke hit the post after cutting inside Walker and then Coward produced a magnificent double save to beat away Matt Pattison's angled shot before recovering to deny Greg Draper from the rebound.

As in August it was a case of déjà vu as Basingstoke clung on for all three points.

Bees shrug off Merthyr blues

KEYNSHAM TOWN 0 BRIDPORT 3

Toolstation Division One - Att: 62

BRIDPORT shrugged off the disappointment of last week's defeat to Merthyr Town to give what manager Trevor Senior described as a "professional" performance against a Keynsham Town side who have already beaten the Bees twice this season.

After goals from Dan Wise, Adam Symes and Ryan Dovell had seen his side close within three points of second placed Oldland Abbotonians with a game in hand, Senior said: "It's not the best place to come to at anytime in the season, but it was cold and the pitch was slightly frozen, but the lads just got on with it.

"Our movement, passing and decision-making were excellent. The running from midfield was good and our defence very solid, and up front we created a lot of chances. Once we had got acclimatised to the conditions after the first five minutes, we dominated the game."

Senior recalled Dovell, who had returned from his belated honeymoon in place of Shane Evans in the only change, and with Jamie Symes still sidelined due to a groin problem he pushed Matt Condliffe forward to partner Dovell.

Adam Symes and Russell Legg both impressed individually and in tandem, and from one move between them Legg went close. In a repeat on 36 minutes Legg was brought down in the box and Wise converted from the penalty spot.

Keynsham almost conceded another soon after when Wise and Legg combined. However Dovell's header from Legg's cross hit the crossbar before Chris Clarke did exactly the same from the rebound.

Clarke then went close with a shot but in the 40th minute had to be replaced when he received a dead leg after colliding with Keynsham's keeper Fear as he sent in a header.

The Bees maintained their superiority after the break and added a second on 63 minutes when a mazy run from Legg carried him into the Keynsham box before he poked the ball through to Symes who finished from close range.

Fear kept his side in touch as he made good saves from Condliffe, then a near post header from Symes before an even better stop from Dovell, again from close range. However he was finally beaten again a minute from time as Dovell cut in from the right as Fear tried to regain his position. Despite Wise and Dan Peart being in good scoring positions he took the chance on himself to score from an acute angle.

Sub Alan Hill almost added a fourth in added time after being put through but Fear thwarted him, before the hosts McDermott was dismissed for two yellow cards.

Senior was pleased with the whole teams performance which he rated as one of the best this season, but felt that several players excelled.

Adam Symes and Russell Legg worked very well together, and I thought Matt Condliffe worked really hard and was a livewire.

"Ryan Hayter and Dan Wise had their best games of the season, whilst Shane Evans did well at left wing back when he came on.

"Give Keynsham their due, they kept coming at us. It was good to beat them as they have been a bit of a bogey side, and we could have won by more."

Regarding Bridport's promotion prospects he added: "I have said all along that Merthyr are likely to win it, and that it is probably between us and Oldland for the second spot. However there is still a long way to go, and I think it will go to the wire."

The Bees face another tough trip this Saturday to Devizes Town who are currently on a superb run.

"They will be tough; I think they have won eleven of their last twelve; so we will have to be on our mettle. Unfortunately Ryan Hayter is not available due to work commitments, and there are doubts whether Chris Clarke will recover in time."

Bees get Blues over rub of green

BRIDPORT RESERVES 1 PORTLAND UNITED 3

BEES boss Steve Crabb felt his side did not get the rub of the green in going down 3-1 at St Mary's Field in this Magna Dorset Premier League Cup match.

Smarting from a 10-0 drubbing by the Blues in the league at the beginning of the month, Bridport produced a much better performance which Crabb believes with the rub of the green could have exacted revenge.

The Bridport joint manager did not understand some of the refereeing decisions, particularly the nine bookings for his side, including two for Jamie Fry resulting in a sending off a minute from the end, or the two for Portland.

"I don't think there was a bad tackle in the whole of the game so I am surprised by his decisions, as I was him turning down our penalty appeal on the half-hour when Tristan Gale was fouled. He then awarded Portland one a minute before the break when clearly by the direction in which the ball travelled, Ashley Clarke got the ball not the man."

The penalty, converted by Adam Linaker was the only goal in a fairly even first-half.

After the interval Bridport bossed the game for the first 20 minutes without creating too much. They then conceded a free-kick just outside the box which was headed home at the far post by Sam Pattison.

Bridport got back in the game when Liam Greatrex deflected Adam Stordy's cross passed his own keeper under pressure from Ben Clarke. The Bees continued to dictate but with time running out they pushed Ashley Clarke up front looking for a goal, allowing Portland to create a couple of good chances, one of which was successful through Ashley Smith to seal the match.

Crabb added: "I was quite pleased with our effort and commitment, and on another day we might have got something out of it. We matched them in most departments, and bossed the game for large parts of it without really creating much. We conceded the third as we went chasing the game."

After some strong results recently, Bridport Thirds disappointingly went down 3-1 to Balti House in their latest Dorset League Division Two match.

WEYMOUTH GOLF CLUB LADIES

Determined Monica takes the reins

MONICA Barter has been elected the next Weymouth Ladies Captain and takes over from current captain Jane Harris next month, and will be hoping that it will be an exciting and interesting year following twelve months where despite being very successful she endured some painful moments on her way.

Having first joined in 1982, Monica is one of the longest serving lady members of Weymouth Golf Club. She has worked tirelessly, supporting and playing for the Ladies Section since moving back to the club in 1999.

Despite undergoing major surgery to both legs at the beginning of the year, she refused to give up and returned to competitive golf in April, always showing a tough and gritty attitude in every game.

Another setback came late in the summer when she sustained further injury, fracturing her leg in a fall. This would have prevented all but the most determined and enthusiastic player from taking part; not Monica, she takes golf seriously!

Monica is a steady 22 handicap, experienced player, with good course management. This season she won the EWGA Medal competition in both April and October, and was runner up in July and August.

Also in August, despite being the oldest player in the field she won the 36 hole Van Noort Trophy; two rounds of golf played in a day! In October she won the Dorset Vice Captains competition at Lyme Regis.

As vice-captain she has organised and played in all the friendly matches, and is always supportive, kind and encouraging to the less experienced players; showing them the ropes and helping them with the rules of play.

She has represented Weymouth in the County Bronze Handicap Foursomes, the Mixed Handicap Foursomes, Daily Mail Foursomes, Broadstone Eclectic, and played in the Interclub, Beales, Parkin Cup and Legg Bowl teams.

Previously Lady Captain at Chipping Sodbury in Gloucester, she will take over from Jane Harries next month.

All the members are looking forward to the new season with her as their leader and wish her another great year.

Latest results:

November and December are fairly quiet months on the course, and despite the weather which was particularly bad in December matches have been played despite the snow.

The second round of the Legg Bowl, was played at Crane Valley on November 1st with Weymouth winning again; Lisa and Penny winning 2 up and Monica and Jane winning Sup.

The next match will be against either Came Down or Canford School at home in January.

In December lady members enjoyed many fun competitions, including the 'Christmas Fayre' and prizes for everyone taking part.

Gorge B press on towards title

Shipton Gorge B 21 Preston A 15

PRESTON A provided stern opposition and the absence of Bruce Beal made this a difficult Weymouth & District Table Tennis League encounter for the Gorge's B string.

Jim Saunders was determined to see his side come out on top and pulled out a maximum nine points in a steady performance. Ron Tucknott grafted a more than useful seven and reserve John Moseley's one was enough to ensure that his side could not lose when they reached the doubles at 18-15 up.

Saunders and Tucknott then applied a clinical finish to take the doubles 3-0 and the match 21-15.

New formation a success

Yeovil & Sherborne 2nd 4 Beaminster 2 BEAMINSTER put in another good team performance without reward when they fought back from a two goal deficit at the break, only for third placed Yeovil & Sherborne 2nd's to finally overpower them in the last quarter.

With goals at a premium this season, the West Dorset side reverted to a new formation playing with three forwards, and they certainly had some success.

Captain Ali White, named player of the match, moved forward to the left side of midfield from sweeper, with Emma Davies dropping back into central midfield, swooping places with Julia May who assumed the striker role.

The new formation took a few minutes to bed in but they soon settled and matched their hosts for 20 minutes before Yeovil took the lead from a short corner.

Despite Yeovil's slick passing, the Beaminster defence, in which centre back Sarah Davies excelled, held firm until just before the break when their players stopped when the ball was kicked by an opponent. However the umpires missed it and Yeovil took advantage to score.

With Beaminster feeling much more comfortable with their new shape they came back strongly after the interval, attacking in numbers, and pulled a goal back ten minutes in following a short corner.

Emma Davies played a one-two with in-jector Freija Crawford whose angled shot looked to be going wide but Danni Donovan on the far post reacted to fire it home.

They equalised five minutes later when Emma Davies released May who drew the home keeper before driving the ball beyond her.

Unfortunately Yeovil, a strong physical side, stepped up their game and scrambled home a third in a goalmouth melee before adding a fourth following a short corner routine.

Unfortunately Beaminster suffered a serious blow just before the end when May was struck on the hand, breaking her little finger which will rule her out for a number of games including the crucial clash with bottom side Poole this Saturday.

The new formation was deemed a success and would appear to be the way forward for Beaminster.

End of the line for Wildcats?

DESPITE the attempts of a five-man consortium to save Weymouth Wildcats from extinction, the battle appears to be almost over.

The consortium which includes including former sponsor Harold Doonan have been working tirelessly to save the club following the repossession of the Wessex Raceway in November by owners Wessex Delivery Partnership over unpaid rent.

However despite repeated requests by the consortium to meet with the owners to discuss leasing the track back they have heard nothing, and their chances of racing next season seem bleak when with no representative at the AGM last week, the sport's governing body, the BSPA, confirmed that Weymouth along with Mildenhall and Bournemouth will not be competing in this year's National League.

■ GOAL: Gary Bowles head's home Dorchester Town's first goal in the 3-3 draw with Welling United. The defender was later red-carded (see report on page 77).

Colfox girls retain county title

THE SIR John Colfox School's Inter Girls won the county title for the third consecutive time at the Dorset County Cross County Championships held recently at King's Park, Bournemouth.

Beth Letherby led them home in seventh place with Wendy Robertshaw (13th), Anna Roberts-Wray (15th) and Maddy Gape (16th).

The Junior Girls with Honor Slade finishing 15th claimed the team runners-up, whilst the Minor Girls team finished fourth overall, with all four runners closely bunched and finishing in the top 23 with Izzy Tiffin (15th), Grace Butt (20th), Hannah Noonan (21st) and Rebecca Hughes (23rd).

Out of the 44 individual runners that took part, Rhys Kirkpatrick was the highest placed, finishing fifth in the Junior Boys.

The Minor Boys finished 12th out of 22 teams with James Noonan the highest placed in 33rd position, whilst Matt Fry (22nd) was the highest finisher in the Inter Boys.

Overall 10 runners finished in the top 15, and they may have the opportunity to compete for the county in the South West Championships later this month.

The Sawyer is Grand National possible

THE Sawyer, carrying an extra 15lb when winning the Grade 3 Handicap Murphy Group Chase at Cheltenham last year, could not repeat the feat on Saturday, but still produced a strong performance in finishing fourth for the Bob Buckler stable writes Stuart Broom.

With an extra five pounds and unable to claim Nathan Sweeney's 10lb allowance it was always going to be a difficult race for the 11-year-old against the younger horses.

Once again he jumped impeccably but without the speed was unable to dominate the race as he likes to do.

After a slowish start he was soon tucked in behind the leaders, but as the race progressed fell back. However he came strong in the last third of the race and ran on well to claim fourth, and may well now be aimed for the Grand National at Aintree in April.

"The run at Ascot brought him on, and he ran a super race," said Buckler. "He's lost a bit of his speed as he's got older, but he jumped superbly again and stayed on at the end. The additional weight this year of course didn't help matters.

"We're now thinking that he might go for the National, but he needs to win a race to get in."

With that in mind Buckler has entered him for the Totesport.com Grand National Trial Handicap at Haydock Park on February 19th over 3 1/2 miles.

With better ground forecast this week, the stable have a number of horses listed.

Among them is another youngster making his debut. Wild Tango is scheduled to go in the bumper at Cheltenham on Friday where Crank Hill, who finally broke the yard's losing run by winning on New Year's Day, and the promising Power Lord are also expected to run.

With three seconds but no win yet, Buckler is expecting Ballyegan to go close at Towcester on Thursday, whilst newcomers Quix and Champagne Rosie are looking to confirm their potential at Wincanton also on Thursday.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

Chidley double edges Puddletown home

ON a rather bleak winter afternoon when the temperature rarely rose above freezing point and visitors BRADFORD ON AVON conceded the game to DORCHESTER, while the DEVIZES/BRIDPORT game fell victim to a frozen pitch, I decided to stay close to home and ventured to Bridport to take in their second team's fixture with Puddletown in the Dorset & Wilts League Division Two (South).

As the Dorchester first side's game had been called off, it was a strong Dorchester second side that faced strugglers Fordingbridge seconds. In fact Dorchester proved to be far too powerful for this opposition, running out easy winners by 79-3.

The Dorchester third side also played at home, and they too recorded a win albeit a much narrower one. They came out on top against visitors Oakmedians thirds by a single point at 25-24.

BRIDPORT 2nd 13pts, PUDDLETOWN 18pts

THE visitors faced the stiff breeze initially and Bridport had the better of the early exchanges. In fact they turned territory into points when they kicked a penalty goal from in front after just five minutes.

In spite of this reversal I felt that Puddletown were looking the likelier unit and a few minutes later they put together a good handling movement from set piece possession that was finally stopped scant yard short of the home line.

They kept the pressure on however and Bridport were penalised in front of their own posts in turn, with full back Dan Udell kicking the goal to tie the scores at 3-3 after 15 minutes.

The Puddletown effort received a set back almost immediately however for they lost hooker Yeatman to the bin for an illegal tackle. His side continued to have an edge in his absence however, and could well have taken the lead around the end of the first quarter, but their penalty kick from the twenty two slid wide.

It was Bridport who regained the lead on the half-hour however when, after they had taken ball at the line out and mauled effectively, they released, and one of their centres cut a good angle to get over halfway out.

The try was unconverted and Bridport led 8-3. The scoreline remained the same until the change round, and I felt that Puddletown would have been the more satisfied side at this stage.

Although Puddletown took a lead that I felt they deserved early in the second-half, the actual score had a hint of good fortune about it. They were awarded a penalty near half way and decided to kick at goal. The kick fell short but was knocked on by a Bridport defender and a scrum five yards from the line resulted.

The home side then fringed off side and, from a quick tap, Puddletown's lock forward and skipper, Chidley, crashed over. Udell duly added the extras to give his side a 10-8 lead with five minutes of the second-half gone.

The visitors were enjoying a decisive edge forward at this stage and spent some time on the Bridport line, finally making a foray down the narrow side of a five yard scrum to very good effect, that ended with Chidley touching down his second of the afternoon. This one remained unconverted but gave Puddletown a 15-8 lead.

The home side had been using their strong bench to good effect and, after a knock on from the restart had given them an attacking opportunity, they imposed some pressure, ran back a speculative kick out of defence and their right winger stood up his marker and got over in the corner. The extras could not be added and the score now stood at 13-15 with Bridport now really back in the game.

Puddletown continued to have their edge forward and, with some 15 minutes left for play, they moved out of penalty goal range with Udellis third successful place kick of the game. Bridport, to their credit, tried to mount something of a rally. They were forced to attack from deep however and, in spite of coming under occasional pressure, the Puddletown defence coped until the whistle for no side sounded to notch a win that was, I felt, deserved.

The home side, although they scored two good tries, were on the back foot for much of the game in the eight, and fell off rather too many tackles for their own peace of mind.

OAKMEDIANS 2nd 25pts, WEYMOUTH 8pts

WITH the home side's first team game falling victim to the weather, Weymouth, in all probability, encountered a tougher task than they were expecting.

The fact is however that they did not play well, in the first-half anyway and, by the halfway stage, Oakmedians were 'away and clear'.

Weymouth did however, take the lead with an early Peplow penalty goal, but this was just to flatter and deceive.

Their lineup did not function. They lacked any aggression at set scrum time and, although they generally pride themselves on their defence, fell off too many tackles. Oakmedians took full advantage, scoring four tries before the interval. They converted one of them and led 22-3 at half-time.

The home side further extended their lead by kicking a penalty goal early in the second-half and, almost immediately after this, the game was delayed owing to an injury to a home player.

In fact it eventually resumed on a different pitch. The change of venue seemed to help Weymouth for they played rather better subsequently. They could not change the result however and, although Joe Gibson reduced the deficit when he got over in the corner late on, it was 'too little, too late' and Oakmedians ran out comfortable winners.

BLANDFORD 2nd 8pts, WEYMOUTH 2nd 10pts

WEYMOUTH seconds edged this encounter by two unconverted tries two one, but had to come from behind to do so.

The home side held a half time lead at 8-3, scoring an unconverted try and a penalty goal, with Weymouth replying with an unconverted effort from Les Moon.

They scored a second effort, through Ian Critchell this time, in the second half and, with the home side not able to respond, held on for the narrow win.

PREVIEW

THE game of the day on Saturday next takes place at BRIDPORT where the home side takes on near neighbours DORCHESTER with local bragging rights at stake.

Now traditionally local Derbies tend to the unpredictable and often throw up surprise results, but I do not think this encounter will do so.

Dorchester are cruising along, very much in the top half of the Southern Counties league (South) table, and playing attractive rugby, while Bridport currently reside in a relegation place and are encountering difficulties.

I would say however that the visitors do have trouble holding focus for the full eighty minutes, tending to pause for tea and buns, so to speak, during the third quarter. If they do so on Saturday then Bridport can cause problems. I do not think this will happen however and I take Dorchester to win this one with a bit to spare.

The earlier game at Dorchester was a high scoring one (34-

19) and this one will likely be the same. WEYMOUTH will be engaged in a rather closer encounter, for they take on NORTH DORSET 2nd at home.

Their opponents edged the earlier fixture by 29-20, and this one has all the makings of a nail biter.

Much will depend, I think, on the performance of the home defence. Having been a real factor in the club's success, it fell from grace rather during the first half on Saturday last and it can ill afford to do so again.

I take the home side to put last week's reversal well and truly behind it, and to come out of this one with a win. There won't be too much in it at the whistle for no side though.

As for PUDDLETOWN, they travel to take on the WHEAT-SHEAF CABIN CREW, having lost to this side at home earlier in the piece. They have been stringing a few wins together recently, and I watched their workmanlike performance last time out. They will have to be at their best if they are to come out on top in this one however.

As to the second sides, Weymouth seconds travel to Bournemouth fourths, a side whom they beat heavily earlier on in the season. They should win this one, but I do not think they will run away with it.

The Bridport second side seems to be finding the going tough in most of their games this season and they will certainly do so at South Wilts seconds.

Both the Dorchester second and third sides play at home, and both face close games. The seconds take on North Dorset thirds, a side who narrowly bested them earlier, while the thirds play Lytchett Minster seconds who beat them 22-19 back in the autumn.

Rugby extras

Dorchester U13 59 Fordingbridge 0

DORCHESTER scored an early try through Jamie Brown after a quick sequence of accurate passing but then had to withstand pressure from Fordingbridge with some solid defending.

However following a Dorchester scrum, Casper Bailey peeled off to touch down before Jack Warburton scored their third try which was converted by Bailey.

A counter attack started by George Voss led to another Bailey try, and although the visitors showed plenty of determination Gabriel Whale broke and sprinted in for a converted try.

Playing downhill in the second half and with a strong wind Dorchester continued to dominate and Brown scored again following Theo Boyesen's offload. Some excellent rucking and defending from Dorchester followed by some slick passing and strong running from Ryan Haskell allowed Warburton in for another converted try, who from the restart ran in unopposed under the posts. A final converted try gave Dorchester an easy and deserved win.

Dorchester U16 17 Wimborne 25

WHEN Dorchester finally manage to compete for a whole game they will surely record a convincing victory, but once again the home side concede at least two soft tries which in the end was the difference between winning and losing.

Although an entertaining game it did at times become very scrappy, and with Dorchester allowing the visitors too much time on the ball, they soon found themselves three tries down and 15-0 behind.

Finally Dorchester woke up and applied some extended pressure and were rewarded when Sam Pollard forced his way over from close range. This galvanised the home side and when Pollard caught the restart, some clever inter play between the forwards and backs saw Harry Charlier make good ground down the left flank and score on his first appearance. Two more unconverted Wimborne tries saw the visitors lead 25-10 at the break.

Now it was Dorchester's turn to put pressure on. A scrum just inside their own half saw them secure clean ball and Charlier made a searing break up the right. A perfectly timed pass saw Chris Lawton, providing support out wide, show his pace by out running the cover defence and touching down. With Harry Smith adding the conversion from a difficult angle, Dorchester were back in the game.

Unfortunately they couldn't find a way through a well organised defence, and the game deteriorated into a scrappy affair with neither side able to impose themselves for more than two or three phases, and eventually petered out with Wimborne shading a good game.

PENALTIES CAN'T SAVE LYME

NEW referee Bryan Perryman marked his first appearance in the middle at the Davey Fort where he played for, and managed, the Lyme Regis first team in the late 90s by awarding his old team two penalties!

Both decisions were fully justified but failed to inspire Lyme Regis Reserves into ending their poor run which has resulted in four straight defeats.

Steve Batey missed the first kick but Harvey Brimicombe scrambled home the rebound. Striker Jason Hawker scored the second but the Seaside's went down 4-2 to Winsham United to end their defence of the Arthur Gage Cup ended at the first hurdle.

Reserves player-manager Gerard Hitchcock will however have been encouraged by the way his side matched a powerful Winsham side destined to be in a Division One promotion place come May. Only one of the Lyme teams has a scheduled match in the weekend ahead.

The first team return to action with the visit of perennial mid-tableers Barrington. Manager Robin Townsend was disappointed to see his team without a game last weekend and spent the afternoon casting an eye over rivals' South Petherton and Beaminster as they beat Merriott (3-1) and Ilminster Town Reserves (5-1) respectively.

Townsend will be keen to get his informal side back out on the pitch to extend their unbeaten run which currently stands at seven matches. History suggests a Lyme win - the 'Yellow Hammers' last win over the Seaside's was five and half years ago.

Meanwhile Lyme Regis Bantams' 4-2 win at Winsham United Reserves back in October has been declared void on the Perry Street League website. Officials from Lyme and Winsham are puzzled by the decision.

It seems the PSL have decided, after a delay of three months, that the Seaside's fielded an ineligible player and have ordered a replay.

The decision has resulted in the Bantams dropping into the Division Three relegation zone.

Uplyme return to Division Two action with the visit of promotion-chasing Beaminster. The Swallows are not completely out of contention and a win at Venlake on Saturday could catapult them back into the leading pack.

Charmouth face one of the Division One front-runners when they make the trip to Henhayes to take on Crewkerne Town.
